Guys did you realize how the series fucking with you morality wise?

Warning: SPOILERS.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

* Like Kiritsugu Emiya, fucking his colleague instead of his wife.. this is kinda meh but it was kinda chocking to see as he had just left his humunculus wife and got a daughter and went to fuck his colleague.

* Ilya the daughter of Kiritsugu getting orphaned to grow up with harsh old pedo guy that forces her to learn all magic the harsh way and then end up dying with the thoughts that her parents left her and what not... (why didnt Kiritsugu Emiya try to find her after?)

* Sakura getting thrown into the abyss made of worms and shit going inside all holes of her and old pervert calling it eating her chastity to get more mana.

* Kariya Matou doing everything to save Sakura and Rin's future by sacrificing himself by trading his place and still Sakura ending like a sociopath for a while and then to hear she getting buillied and raped by her brother Shinji. Ended up hating everyone because basically no one helped her.

These are just a few examples how heartwrenching the series is, i did never think about it the first time i watched the anime however after i started to do some more research and gah, shit got depressing ?
