Thread: John McAfee Insider Trading Tips

Trappy - December 26, 2017, 3:57 pm

Through our various connections Meow and I have come upon the very fortunate situation to network with a Twitter user who is a personal friend of John McAfee.

Now while I cannot speak on the matter of whether or not McAfee is being paid to recommend these coins, I can speak on the matter that he tells a small group of his associates what coin he will be recommending on that particularly day. Meow and I were advised by our source at 1am on Christmas morning that John would be recommending Humaniq, and we were able to get a very favorable position for the coins pump.

My question to HF is would anyone be interested in receiving these tips? I believe it is quite profitable to be familiar with the psyche of McAfee and his connections as his influence over Crypto Currencies grows everyday.

Edit 6:12 PM: Meow and I have decided we are taking one person as a trial. Your account status, prestige, and reputation have no bearing on our decision. Feel free to PM me.

He does get paid to recommend these coins. They do seem to pump a good bit though after his calls. Getting in is the hardest part so being early = massive profits

GrandpaSherman - December 26, 2017, 3:59 pm

I would certainly love the insider scoop on the coin of the week yes

N?ght - December 26, 2017, 3:59 pm

Hes only doing it once a week now but Id be heavily interested in this

It's much more complicated than that but I'd rather not go into much details. Don't trust everything you see on twitter, especially screenshots of DMs and shit like that. ?

suicidsns - December 26, 2017, 4:02 pm

I would be surprised if anyone says they're not interested lol

Absolutely insane profits. Meow and I are debating on entry prices for this and whether or not we should actually sell this since the information is so valuable.

What would happen with the other 30%?

-Google - December 26, 2017, 5:51 pm

I wouldn't sell it if I could make so much money by my own by having that information

Say what you will, but John is making me thousands.

Seltsac - December 26, 2017, 8:12 pm

I'd love to be your trial. I've got a lot of exposure to trading.

If you still are looking for someone for the trial, let me know. However, I don't think you should sell this.

Man clearly said to PM HIM, not me. Whoever PM'd me, I just ignored you.

We will go thru the list tonight and pick someone.

Haven't got enough posts to PM yet but would love to still be considered. Cheers

I would be more than thankful to participate in this opportunity. If the spot is still free, please hit me up.

Why not?

The reason why I think this may be an issue is legalities. You are risking a lot of legal issues. I am unaware of what could occur should authorities get word of people using insider information to generate a profit, but, I imagine something could happen. But again, I am unfamiliar with the laws / lack of laws behind crypto.

I don't see how we are doing anything illegal. We simply get McAfee's "tips" earlier, we don't have to wait for him to post in on twitter.

Trappy - December 27, 2017, 2:36 pm

Got the Sia tip minutes early, made a VERY favorable position.

I've made 7k in minutes and Meow has made considerable profits as well.

Meow and I have picked our trial member.

We know John's influence and power over the market now. The potential for out profit lies in the millions of dollars.

Thank you.

And what will stop anyone from sending John McAfee a message that someone is selling his insider trading tips?

Pacific - December 27, 2017, 3:34 pm

Is there also any proof you guys are legit? Most people probably want pictures of the actual earnings that you guys made of it

I mean, how would he know who is "leaking" his tips? It's not that easy. It doesn't say "Meow" on my ID lol
