I don't gamble it's a waste of time

GloryToBe - December 29, 2017, 9:41 pm

When I used to gamble on soccer games I did big bets on teams I did analysis on and won a few big bets and made about $2k, but then lost it all on stupid bets on teams I wasn't familiar with. Don't worry about the loss though, you should be willing to lose all the money you make if you continue gambling.

Your in a bit of a similar situation as me. I recently made a hell of a win by my standards which was almost 7k and blew it all and I mean literally every last penny on roulette in 2 days.. The feeling of losing 7k in 2 days is unimaginable depression but well I been there before, so I guess it's nothing new.. Gambling is soo fucking addictive!!

I made tens of thousands out of thin air gambling. But I lost it all and more! At this point I can't afford to lose anything anymore lol. I'm glad I quit gambling.

Eddyxdd - May 15, 2018, 7:02 am

I think that is too risky, but for some people that is vicious!

When you have played this game enough and I categorise it under a game because gambling is just a mind game, you know that it's a never ending cycle of losing. Every win you get is just a buzz not an actual win because sooner or later you lose that money and more and all of us gamblers know that but decide to push it aside. However after the last loss I had which was huge for me and the walk of shame walking out of the casino like a retard with $20 out of 7k is making me really reconsider how I gamble but I know I won't stop or at least now :D Gambling is a strange beast.. I literally lost a sum that would of covered all my loans and I still constantly want to play roulette ? ? So DON'T GAMBLE FRIENDS :D

And BTW I completely understand why your attitude is ' I will get it back, fuck it' I am still in this mood because you know you fucked up and your only thought is repairing this damage, but we gamblers try to repair with more damage xD The more you try to chase that cash, the more you will lose and it's a proven fact. Best thing is to give yourself a break, because for the love of god a gambling addict would turn the world upside down but find money to play.

nabhaservices - June 11, 2018, 8:23 am

Every gambler has the same story. I need to learn to control myself from betting on every game XD

Mariekiz - June 11, 2018, 11:07 am

Need 25 pists man ffs man

Sir-Teabag - June 11, 2018, 11:11 am

I never bet, it's a waste and a risk I don't want to take.

Tomb Raider - June 11, 2018, 11:13 am

2017 I bet £1000 for Patriots to win and got £1600 back. Made same bet again this year but lost. Why a Brit who knows nothing of American football I don't know but a lesson learnt and still feel down thinking of that loss

ElonMusksAlgorithm - July 16, 2018, 12:23 am

Used to wager 2-6k per day and there were some wild fucking days where I'd win or lose over 5k a day. In the end I quit while I was in the green ?

OGdude - July 29, 2018, 3:46 pm

I gamble thousands on boxing and I keep losing, I'm down $10k by the bookies and I'm just too addicted.
