SheepGang is a gaming/lounge group that plays games across all platforms. Remember to put effort in your application.

Keep in mind that joining a gaming group requires patience, dedication and co-operation. If you do not possess these values, do not even attempt to join. If you fail to participate up to 3 events in a row that you sign up for, then you will be removed from SheepGang.

Why do you believe you belong to be a part of this group?:

My passion for video games is something I can bring, I love gaming and I think it can only be expressed on a group like this. I am skilled over a variety of different games and I believe that I will be a good contribution to the sub-forum and other gamers. I think that I can bring friendliness and try to end any rivalry or bitterness amongst the group.

Will you be dedicated to the group?:

I can bring activity to the group by playing with fellow members, making the sub-forum active and just being a good sport. I have the right attitude and the capability to bring something new to the sub-forum and I can ensure that my activity and the time I spend will be productive. Due to my activity, I will be available on a regular basis thus making the sub-forum more popular. I can bring a positive ethos to the group through my sportsmanship which is something that is scarce amongst the gaming community

Do you have anything note-able gaming related?:

Not quite sure what you mean here haha. but anything tangible? i don't think so.

Will you be dedicated to the group?:

Of course. I'm always looking for like minded gamers to play with. Maybe someone can recommend a new game for me to play.

:/ it's sort of sketchy that the person you put in charge of making this thread for your group, thereby representing your group is a scammer. That's all.

His quote is a perfect answer to your statement. I'm not his father or his mother and I won't feel bad about what another person does. He simply lead my group and put up a few threads for me. HF has well over 38k DDs, do you expect to be safe on here?

You act as if Divined is in charge of what his leaders do. Anyone on a public forum could scam. That's like if a staff member were to scam, would you blame Omni? Shit happens. Some people are broke and go desperate. It's pathetic but no reason to point fingers at Divined.

Now, back to applying. :)

I don't act like anything. I just assume someone who you put in charge of something that cost you $8k or whatever would be a little more vetted, that's all.
