That doesn't mean you can advertise it as 100% inbox because you just mentioned that a condition has to be met for it to reach inbox lol.

In that case, every mailing tool is 100% inbox.

It's on your first page actually, which is what people view first on a thread; I just wanted to let you know that it wouldn't be 100% inbox if a condition must be met.

Trzanium Production - February 2, 2018, 10:36 am

And that will give you the right?! F* kid...

Read next time all pages before you post on any thread.

You don't need to advertise your tools on my sale threads only because your tool is shitty and you didn't get any purchases lol!!

It's tested with all popular providers!

1) What triggered you lmao?

2) I have skim and scanned through all your pages, what's your point?

3) I haven't advertised any of my products on your thread.

4) I have received hundreds of sales; I believe it has gotten more than 'no purchases'.

5) Your tool still isn't '100% inbox'.
