Thread: 16-year-old allegedly killed parents, sister, family friend minutes before new year

ZuGgY - January 1, 2018, 11:56 am

Quote:Minutes before midnight on New Year's Eve, a 16-year-old boy allegedly used a semi-automatic rifle owned by a family member to shoot and kill his parents, sister and a family friend inside the parents' home in a coastal city in southern New Jersey, the county prosecutor said. The teen, whose name has not been released, is in police custody in connection with the shooting deaths of his father, Steven Kologi, 44; mother, Linda Kologi, 42; sister, Brittany Kologi, 18; and a family friend, Mary Schultz, 70, who was residing at the Kologi home in Long Branch, New Jersey, according to Monmouth County Prosecutor Christopher Gramiccioni and a statement from his office. The teen's brother and grandfather apparently escaped harm. They "thankfully left the home and came out OK," Gramiccioni said at a press conference Monday morning. Police arrived on the scene shortly after receiving a call from inside the home about shots fired at 11:43 p.m. on Dec. 31, a statement from the prosecutor's office said. The boy was arrested at the scene without incident, Gramiccioni said. The prosecutor said he expects that the teen will on Tuesday be charged as an adult with four counts of murder and one count of possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose. No possible motive was revealed. "It's a terribly tragic incident," Gramiccioni said. Source

SO autism is a HUGE factor because he wasn't getting assistance?

He killed his fucking FAMILY because he didn't get assistance for his autism? I doubt it seriously. I have a friend with high functioning autism (aspergers) and has never gotten assistance for that in his life. He's a bit socially awkward but never fucked up like that kid.

Trust me, I'm not on his side...they're trying him as adults for multiple counts...when found guilty he will get life...but his lawyers may rule insanity too...

Yep damn white people and gun violence

nyxil - January 6, 2018, 12:05 pm

And now the democrats will use this as another example of why guns law should be stricter, making guns illegal or restricting them would most likely not change the frequency of homicides. If this guy didn't have a gun at the time, he would've got one soon enough if he wanted one no matter the law. Terrorists/Maniacs will always find a way to obtain a suitable weapon if they're intent on killing.

Blame people, not guns.

I agree harder more intensive background checks and mandatory mental health screening every 2-3 years for those who get CCW or own guns as this is an issue with the people not the guns

Byakuya Kuchiki - August 22, 2018, 8:01 am

It's because kids think they can get away with anything. However when they are caught and given into trouble it's abuse.

The amount of kids that are near my house that think they can't be touched is unbelievable. there one there that always tries to pop my tyres so next time touches it gonna drop kick the cunt into my wheels and see if he does it again.

But it's because they think they can't be touched or claim abuse when you smack them lol

sp??k? - August 22, 2018, 2:51 pm

I don't see how people do this in the first place. Are the mental unstable or are they just mentally retarded jeez
