Anyone seen this on Youtube drama news etc. yet? His reaction etc. is quite disgusting, worst part is that this video was trending before it was removed.

Yes there are reuploaded videos on youtube showing the body etc. but I wont share it here.

Real. He was in the infamous "Suicide Forest" in Japan. You can search it up yourself, for more details.

His apology seemed sincere. We all make mistakes.

Ducky10100 - January 2, 2018, 1:38 pm

Yeah the video was bad and it wasn't the right way to go about it, but gotta love the other youtubers saying "cant believe he used a death to make money!!" and then they go make a 20 minute video with ads on about him for views.
