Moon Rock - January 4, 2018, 9:01 am

I'm currently using Adblock Plus extension on Firefox browser.

SIM-1676753 - January 5, 2018, 3:12 am uBlock is light while also being an absolute killer. I love it.

DrDoof - January 5, 2018, 3:15 am

I don't remember a time when I did not. Currently using uBlock Origin after adBlock went to shit a year ago.

Pope - January 5, 2018, 3:16 am

I also agree that uBlock origin is probably one of the better ad-blockers.

JELLY?IsH - January 5, 2018, 3:20 am

Who doesn't? I use uBlock.

HOMODIN - January 5, 2018, 3:30 am uBlock Origin or what ever the hell it's called, both on FF and Chrome. Used to have Adblock plus before but since they now have whitelisted adds...that's kinda fucked up, adblocker that shows adds...logic.

Well, maybe you wanna support your friend's blog, or your favorite website. Without adds, online news and other websites and blogs won't make any money.

True, even tho Adblocker Plus gets money from the ones who want to whiteliest their ads, that's the thing that is so f:ed up - hypocrites.

Malicious` - January 5, 2018, 3:58 am

I use uBlock. I disable it on some websites though. Also disabled for HF.

Bob White - January 5, 2018, 9:43 am ublock ORIGIN, best version, won't track you or sell you ads like adblock will.

zerocool - January 5, 2018, 10:28 am

Vyxn - January 12, 2018, 6:50 am

I'm using Adblock Plus but I whitelisted this forum so I can help it.

gigi1274 - January 13, 2018, 2:20 pm

Ublock origin because they don't have shady business practices going on

Been meaning to test Brave again. Thanks for reminding me.

tank - January 14, 2018, 6:38 pm

Yes, I use adblocker. Reasoning being is I watch a lot of twitch and 95% of those ad's are aids.

Saltpeter - January 14, 2018, 6:41 pm

Yes, I use a mixture of uBlock Origin and AdGuard between my browsers.

Bennynguyen100 - February 9, 2018, 5:38 am

These days how could you not use an adblocker.

Now he is probably using BRAVE, a browser that everyone should be using. It, by default, automatically blocks ads. Of course, he could have turned off the setting.

Yes, I use ABP except on certain pages or when I am using Brave browser.

Brave was nice, except for it's sync on mobile, that's lagging...Firefox + uBO or even Opera work fine for me :)

Caliban - March 4, 2018, 7:27 pm

Yes i use uBlock, absolutely amazing browser extension.

Riyu - March 4, 2018, 7:28 pm

I use Adblock Plus. I never really used Adblock until recently.

What browser? Have you considered uBO?

PrivateDonut - March 13, 2018, 12:24 am

I have been using Adblock Plus + uBlock. It has been pretty amazing. I do disable them during certain times, or for certain websites that I wish to support.

Tancrede - March 13, 2018, 12:26 am

Ehhh I actually do not haha, because I barely use my laptop browser instead I use my phone? I dont know if that makes sense tho pontusstyf - March 13, 2018, 12:34 pm

I'm using Adblock, thinking about switching to uBlock

FawkCidy - March 13, 2018, 12:41 pm

I use adblock plus in Chrome Browser.

Selfhood - March 26, 2018, 4:09 am

UBlock is very great, im using it in Chrome

The Pact - April 9, 2018, 4:06 am

I use adblock plus on Firefox. I'm sure I used to have Ublock Origin on Firefox but now it refuses to let you download if you aren't on Chrome.

Why would you do that when a phone is so small and pokey. I hardly ever use my phone for internet. I know I'm in the minority.

CannyH2 - April 9, 2018, 5:43 am

After some years I will post on this forum again.

Nice Topic. I will mention that Adblocker and Adblocker Plus got sold to firms. They gathering data and selling them. I had to delete this extension for this reason and that it doesnt block correctly.

For Chrome u can use uBlock. Its best solution.

For Firefox NoScript is a must have! As adblocker use Popupblocker and or Ghostery. Perfect mix!

Wires - April 9, 2018, 8:18 am

Got a new laptop a few months back and put Adblocker and Adblocker Plus on it. Just remembered they went to shit ???

Time to get uBlock Origin.

Xycon - April 10, 2018, 2:01 pm

i used ublock plus and ubo together for a long time but recently switched to ubo only for both chrome and firefox
you can just copy over custom filter between browsers

Yeah, uBO alone is sufficient and better IMO.
