Jeez. Will be a limited group i suppose. Exclusive and all that.Truthfully, I wouldn't mind if the group hovered around 20 users for its entire existence, aslong as those 20 users maintained a level of activity and passion that was acceptable. I know this is Hack Forums, so not everyone is equipped with every ounce of knowledge. With that being said, the quote provided is subject to change as I will be lenient in terms of acceptance if it would prove to be beneficial.

Legitimately - January 7, 2018, 12:01 pm

That userbar is on a whole other level my G, good shit. Good luck with the group! Unfortunately I'm not an artistic person so I'll probably never get the chance to be in a group with well respected members but it's all good. ?

Lukas - January 12, 2018, 10:03 am

Would any of you like to see a recruitment? I don't want to be selfish, but at the same time I don't want talent to go unnoticed or overlooked.

More users, more contribution, more angles of looking at things, more users with different interests and skills. I think you should but that's up to you man.

Snow - January 12, 2018, 11:55 pm

Lukas the group looks great! Can't wait to see how it turns out.

Saltpeter - January 13, 2018, 8:23 am

Only host a recruitment if you've figured out what you would like to do with the group. It will be pointless if you haven't.

It's an art group

For artists

Galaxias - January 14, 2018, 2:58 am

I hope your group create public guides on how to become an artist, where to start and all sorts of stuff related in the graphics section!

That'd be awesome :)

Thornzzz - January 16, 2018, 10:08 am

I've heard from various sources that Lukas plans on making this an anime based group.

HF will rise.
