My email address is my ex work email and since I no longer work there, they have delisted my email, meaning I can't get to my reset link. How do I go around doing this?

HF does not offer account recovery at this moment.

edit: OP bumped his 2 year old thread smh.

No? Mods can read logs. OP posted with something LQ, I just replied with hf not offering recovery because OP's second post in the thread was removed.
