Thread: Topgolfs Bill Reduce Service || Vouched || Limited Time & CHEAP

TopGolf - January 6, 2018, 10:32 pm

Hello, welcome to my thread. I am capable of knocking down/reducing bill payments for 50% of original bill cost (this varies case by case)

Please read the thread fully and do not contact me unless your bill is due and needing paid or behind. I don't have time for time wasters that promise to pay or use my service in x amount of days.

This involves no black hat, and majority of time all I need is account number no passwords no gimmicks no nothing.

(Sometimes, I may need more info then that it varies case by case)

Method is not for sale at this time, and I will not answer any questions about it that may reveal the method. Method is for sale - $800

There is no "bill amount" I can't take care of - I can take care of annual or monthly bills.

Bills I can knock down/reduce price on:

Phone Companies: Verizon, AT&T, Sprint

Internet Companies: Spectrum, Time Warner Cable, XFINITY, AT&T/DirectTV

Rental Companies: Aaron, Rent A Center

Insurance Companies: Progressive and Geico

If you do not see company listed, just send me a PM and I'll let you know for sure!

Payment Methods: Paypal, Cash App, Venmo, BTC

Vouches (there may be more, I won't keep this updated): Spoiler (Click to View)

Terms of Service:

I can deny service to you with no given reason.

If you purchase and dispute without valid reason, it will result in scam report and me canceling the service. Do not waste my time using stolen PP's to try and pay me.

There are is a no refund policy, once I complete your bill there is no refunds.

kokoomong - January 7, 2018, 12:23 am

I think it will be nice to see proof. Maybe some SS or picture of your current bill, previous success and what-not.

MM is capable of holding funds, not posting pictures.

I'm purchasing this service from the user will post results, paid half of what he wanted of the bill before and will pay rest after.

Same question as above?
How much are you charging for this service?

You can use my service for it monthly. However I only do month by month basis.

I appreciate your business, look forward to doing future bills.

Also, for anyone interested in me doing this if you use BTC to pay you will get it cheaper instead of using PP..

As PP is a bitch to have high amount of funds into 99.9% time.

baby u stank - January 7, 2018, 1:26 pm

What do you charge? Is it a fixed rate?

EDIT: Found my answer in previous posts

Eleet - January 7, 2018, 2:00 pm

New bill purchase, he is now paying my Aarons bill. Hit this guy up for 50% off your bills.

TopGolf - January 7, 2018, 2:05 pm

I'm accepting instant bank transfers now as payment option, paypal and btc.

All new bill orders will be completed tonight once I'm back home.
Two more bills completed, Verizon + AT&T.

If you have bills needing lowered and/or taken care of contact me.
No BH involved, most of time (not all of time) I won't need any info besides account number!
Sometimes for certain sites I will need more information.
No gimmicks, no hassles, quick and easy. Done within same day!

Eleet - January 8, 2018, 1:22 pm

Hit this guy up you pay 130 for cable why not pay 65?

TopGolf - January 8, 2018, 8:26 pm

If you need any bills taken care of, and they aren't listed just contact me via PM for appraisal.

Make sure to try giving accurate amount on how much your bill is due as my price varies depending on that.

.Astro - January 8, 2018, 8:41 pm

Very interested in this but I want to see more vouches and more proof before I do this.

Is there a way to do this without all the account information? And you stated this will only work on once a month basically?

Once month, and for most companies they require some type proof or questions on the account number etc.. that's how they verify things.

Just want to note, please don't ask me to message offsite.

If you become a customer that I trust, then I provide my phone number and FB so you can have DIRECT contact to me.

Otherwise, skype and discord and all other messengers..I don't do deals on.
Online now and taking care of all requests.
Update:

Another bill complete, never had heard of this company until today so as I said if it isn't mentioned feel free to just ask in a PM or on here.

Thanks can you please confirm, does this involve you making a payment from someone elses card thus reducing the bill, or do you simply engineer the company into reducing the bill?

Yeah defo man, I wouldn't want to pay for a service and everything to go well and then a few months down the line it catches up with me.

For example OP is not running this for ever and is a very new member, There is the potential for it to go wrong and the seller can quite easily up and leave without losing a good seller account (HF Account).

I am making 0 accusations here just stating as to why I would be hasty to use the service, I hope OP can prove me wrong and talk me around, I see that you have vouches for the service but as I said, something can always bite you in the future.

I will keep watching this thread and make a decision about using the service.

EDIT: Thanks for the hundy mate looks cool :)

I personally give my REAL FB and number out to those who actually buy and plan to be long term buyer.

Many thanks for the response, If I gave you a company name could you potentially find out if it's possible, without me giving any information as to weather is acievable with said company?

For example I say Vodafone, you then test it out and and say yes I can 100% do Vodafone, or you require the account number first?

Here is an update on the bill OP has paid for me.

As you can see the payment has been applied successfully, and he did it all for less than half of the bill! Super happy with this service.

TopGolf - January 13, 2018, 4:59 am

Completed everyone's requested yesterday, ready for more.

I may not give such big discounts unless you are returning customer, as lately I've been doing it for way less than what is advertised to try helping getting sales and getting a better name for myself.

Please do not PM me unless you are ready to pay and have this completed.

I had over 5+ people PMing me yesterday, in which not a single person paid but wasted my time with questions all day long.

I'm trying to do business, not customer service/support.

I don't want to hear this "I'll pay x amount days" simply don't contact me until you have the funds ready for my service.

Please and thank you. Don't be rude and take up all my time when I can assist paying customers and not get so lost in my PMs that I had to even make a notepad of the people who actually paid so I wasn't digging around.

TopGolf - January 17, 2018, 9:15 am

Online and replying to all PMs now.

I prefer BTC payments.

If you are paying with paypal - make sure the funds are coming directly from available balance or credit card and that it will be INSTANT.

Get your bills taken care of today!

Shoot me the funds needed, and I will handle the bill within 6 hours (usually within a hour depending if I'm home or not!)

I'm also now accepting SM's like OG Kiks, OG Instagrams, OG Xbox Gamertags, or STAT Instagrams for trades/as payment.

TopGolf - January 19, 2018, 5:30 am

All bills are being taken care of right now, please shoot me a PM if you would like to purchase to get this completed for any bills.

No matter your country I'm sure I can do it.

WARNING as of 4 am 1/20/18: I'm no longer replying to any user who asks to pay later on, or pay some here and some weeks later.

I'm also no longer replying to "simple questions". I've stated several times I can do majority bills regardless of country yet I get same questions and same people hitting me up day in and day out wasting my time.

If you happen to not finish paying me OR YOU dispute payment against me, I will have your services/whatever I helped with CANCELED.

I'm not tolerating getting fucked over on this. Two people have tried this already and both are going to wake up to their services canceled.
