Disco made a thread about wanting to buy PP for his BTC, and I happened to need 10$ in BTC, so I asked him if the small transaction of just 10$ was fine, to which he said it was entirely okay. He gave me his e-mail, and I proceeded by sending the cash. He then put me on his ignored list, and hasn't returned to me, nor sent the bitcoins.

Him putting me on his ignore list:

Proof that I actually sent the money to him on PP:

Kid lied about his mother dying a long time ago and look at his recent threads something in his head isn't right.

Honestly, I thought he was joking but there's seriously something wrong with him.

Is there anything anyone can do about him? I know the money's gone now, I just wanna know if he can get banned or warned or something in that direction.

Nah he might get banned but isn't likely unless he openly admits to scamming.

Omni/staff don't get involved in deal disputes.
