Had exchanged with Savagee on a previous occasion, had $400 PP that I needed exchanged to ETH and I decided to do it in splits, I sent him $200 and he goes on about how coinbase is being weird blah blah but I figured there wouldn't be any problems because I know how coinbase is, guy has been saying the same shit all day, he's definitely poor lmao but all good broke people will stay broke.

ps; fuck all you exchangers who ignore my pms you can suck me sideways

I've worked with Josh, he's legit, however. Did you send him an address or a Coinbase email?

This matters because Coinbase sometimes doesn't send out a transaction for 12 hours and theirs nothing he can do about it.

Plus Coinbase has been under heavy load recently, and like I said even when you send a transaction it back logs for up to 12 hours sometimes: status.coinbase.com

Sent him an address. Coinbase cleared their backlog, but for further proof.
