Obvious shit boys: Vyrez UID: 2439716

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2439716>

he confessed over discord he uses other people to bump his posts roflmao

oh dang

DANG boyz exposed.

sonex - January 8, 2018, 2:09 pm

No shit Sherlock. Everyone is aware of what's going on with HF marketplace.

Artemis Fowl - January 8, 2018, 2:09 pm

Lel I'm not gonna claim I'm a fan of Vyrez, but this is just ridiculous.

Literally his messages says he has other contacts and explicitly states they aren't multis.

You can take that however you want, but the objective fact is he didn't "confirm" anything.

FamousHater - January 8, 2018, 2:12 pm

"I am the only one in the marketplace that makes sales"

Imao

the irony cause im sure if we all had or paid friends to bump threads we would have sales right?

Meow - January 8, 2018, 2:13 pm

His last message clearly says that he doesn't use multis or creates new accounts in order to bump his threads ?

Also that account is not the account that posted CA on Mr. Retard

I can't wait for som staff to come whip all these shady people.

All of these ebook sellers need to be looked at carefully. It's very annoying, everyone's new post feed is clogged with their shitty methods with all caps titles and then these posts which are just the other ebook sellers trash talking each other.

ZzzzzZzzZzz grow up

Trappy - January 8, 2018, 2:49 pm

Me. Reviewer please stop.. you're going to get Ebook sales banned.

Idk if you're faking those messages or not but the multi'ing and bumping and CA's are ridiculous.

Terrible outlook IMO.

- There is a reason people contact me for all sorts of crap, and I gotta send them away simply because I dont deal with that area of "whatever"

Reputation points don't mean everything, they help, but when people are willing to actually say "Hey this dude wont screw you, or at least send you in the right direction" - it does help as well.

Maybe, maybe just one day we can get something to manage all the ebooks, but realistically, I do not see it happening.

I have learned to view the ebook section as the "learners playground" they will waste money, complain and then realize how naive they were to believe someone was selling a $5,000/month ebook method for $20 online. lol

Yeah actually lmao. I don't think showing one the great in marketplace makes him great among all the members. I actually ALERT EACH AND EVERY MEMBER to deal with those whom are totally trustful with some proofs. Looking to that guy's reputation and posts doesn't seems like he's that kind of the guy but actually a conspiracy was inside him to show himself the best in the marketplace. The majority of HackForums probably doesn't even care anymore at this point. Too many stories came out true, and we all know this happens 99% of the time. It's not bothering me at least, they're faking sales to get a bigger e-dick or thinking other people will buy it because it has a lot of sales.

Bans like these are often based on facts and evidence. Not accusations and fabricated screenshots.

Well i was punished harshly from Omni once upon a time for asking friends for posts on my salestreads... I was hardly one of the worst doing it back then, and in the end it did a neat profit doing so.. But the risks to getting closed by the "chief" are to damn high so i stopped doing that. I never did such a thing again

I gonna say it openly.

Who ever buy this stupid ass indian fake ebooks, he's an idiot.

I always said that even before, why would you buy a ebooks that a lot of members saying that they are not working + leaking them.

He is just making money from nothing lmao....

smd vyrez idc if you see that

Varane - February 10, 2018, 7:08 am

I'm pretty sure it's already a known thing people ask friends and such to bump their threads.

Remove the multi part. He clearly stated he didn't say multi.

These images were fabricated by Mr Reviewer and were proven to be fabricated ages ago. You can clearly tell it was him on a multi just by looking at the profile and the things he did during his short stint.

I love my boy Stanley though, don't get me wrong.

Honestly, as much as I don't like Vyrez for the way he handled things before his closure, it has been ages since he has been on the forum.

People change, let's hope you did too @Vyrez. Let's hope you learned from your closure.

Not sure why a new thread wasn't made instead of bumping a thread that hasn't been posted in for over a year. But I don't know who to believe.

This thread is interesting: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5676627>

But also, the way he speaks here versus the way he was speaking in those screenshots just don't match up. Whoever OP was speaking to in those screenshots is half illiterate, half dead.
