Thread: Found 200\$+ in old doge wallet

severos - January 9, 2018, 3:55 am

I stumbled upon an old 'secret' file I found hidden while I clean up some space on my drive, was about to delete it since it's just text, but then found that it had a link to block.io along with account email. When I checked the account, found over 200$+ worth of DOGE ? ? I remembered that I collected them from faucets like 4 years ago.... and back then they were barely worth 5$ It made me happy AF and now I can't focus on studying for tomorrow's exams ? ???

Anyone had such thing happen? you know, finding money (any form of money) after you totally forgot about it?

Thanks dude, I understand finding 20$ can be amazing, but what I found is like a happy new year gift for me from my younger (or older ?) self ?
