What is a Logo template supposed to be, if I may ask? Every logo is created to show off the company that ordered it and usually unique, templates however are usually finished pieces of "art" which have replaceable text or something, so even unexperienced users can get them to work. I don't get the concept I am sorry.

FinalAtonement - January 12, 2018, 9:27 am

Please can I have it OP? I really love creating logos :) Thanks in advance.

Edit: Just received the pack in under 30mins. Thank you so much OP. I will put good use to it.
