Thread: Someone blackmailing me with family information

Martinped - January 10, 2018, 5:30 pm

Hey guys.

I ordered 100 websites from a guy a few months ago, he promised he would be able to deliver them in 10 days(10 websites per day).

However, since he failed to make more than 1 website per day and he couldn't speed things up I told him to cancel the deal.

Now he somehow found details about my family, their phone numbers, where they live and so on.

All I have is his skype ID and a email.

What can I do?

Stop cry - January 10, 2018, 5:32 pm

he cant do nothing block him from everywhere :) and what he will doing?

Gatt - January 10, 2018, 5:32 pm

Pay someone here to dox him too

J4cked - January 10, 2018, 5:33 pm

Nothing. He seems like a bitch. He won't do shit, if you're really worried or if he does something illegal to you just report him to the police

Well, he will publish everything personal about my family?

Like my parents phone numbers, address, and everything he can find.

And we all know the police cant do anything about it.

I dont have the funds to pay someone to dox him sadly.

What does anyone care about your family's information.

Nobody will randomly call up your family... because they're "so special".

So don't worry about it.

Hit me up with his Skype and Email tho, I will check what I can find on him.

(Pm me it)

10 websites per day?? Jeez.

And I doubt he will do anything.

No need to worry about him posting your family's information. He only got that information because it was already public. ?

Found a shit load of information about the guy.

He seems to be a known scammer.

He goes by the alias: Lary Risky, his real name is Srivastava Vishesh and lives in Cameroon.

PM me your discord and I'll give you the full dox I made on him.

You can order 100 websites but you don't have funds to dox him? Something seems a bit odd here.

Lol I personally think it's a joke that people get so paranoid about their DOX. No one is going to swat you, and if they did, it's going to be the guy who you pissed off.

You see a shit ton of kiddies (and adults, sadly) in the RuneScape scene get so hyped about DOXing that you'd think they just had a loaded weapon. In reality 99% of DOXes are 1) easily available online and 2) aren't touched.

Trust, I've had members of multiple forums find my FB and send me all sorts of threats. I guess I'm lucky for not pissing off some mentally unstable greaseball. Hackers and skids only have power if you give it to them.

Why are you so worried bro, that's all public anyways

visualize_temp - October 17, 2018, 2:27 pm

Wtf is he going to do with your dox. He posts it online and so what. Like if you saw someone's information what would you think about it/do? 99.00% of the time you wouldn't even give a shit and move on with your life

? Heisenberg ? - October 20, 2018, 2:36 am he cant do nothing So don't worry about it.

Gen1e - October 21, 2018, 10:09 am wtf you order 100 websites? what for?

N3oNight - October 21, 2018, 11:27 am like many users said, he cant do anything so no need to worry.

Articulate - October 21, 2018, 11:30 am

100 websites? Whaaat are you up too

.Cab - October 21, 2018, 11:31 am

There are 2 simple problems here..

You're expecting to much.

He underestimated the job.

All you can do is ignore his dumb-ass threats and if he does anything you simply fuck him up legally.

N3oNight - October 21, 2018, 11:32 am

yes like above user said, if he threatens more you can call the cops.

Fucking hell, how come you found out so much just from his skype?

IBotnet - October 21, 2018, 11:37 am

Don't worry about him. He's most likely flexing and if he was going to d something already, he would have.

Lukas - October 21, 2018, 11:40 am

ZZZZZZZZ

This thread is from January.

So you order 100 unique websites within 10 days (which is basicly impossible for 1 guy)

But you don't have the funds to dox him? mmhhmmmm

Seems like you are the jackass in this story and he wasted 10 days for nothing now he's mad and he wants pay back.

zenosyne - October 24, 2018, 7:36 pm

Sorry about what happen OP hope it works out for you
