Thread: Shounen.net || Anime & Manga Forum! // Custom Theme // ShitPosting // Friendly

N1ghtm4re - January 11, 2018, 8:01 pm

Theme isn't 100% done, I'm creating it myself. Not much more to be done on it though.. No Plugins installed yet, feel free to suggest plugins to be installed. No Upgrades, at least not yet.. probably won't have them ever tbh idk. If you like anime and shit then come 3char shitpost or 25char quality post all over the place here.

Discuss Anime, Talk shit about Waifus, chill community just to have fun really...

and can't forget...

Oh and don't worry I already know this "won't go anywhere" I just enjoy making forums so, here's my second community. :-)

I don't know why you say it isn't going anywhere. I think you make nice looking forums with good concepts. Seem like a fun creative person so members would like an admin like yourself. I think if you really put 110% into one project it would really go places. Nice looking sites. Best of luck.

The bottom of the site doesn't appear to like 2560x1440.

Thank you for the kind words :) I appreciate it, the reason I saw that is because it'll likely get commented by a few people anyway so I might as well let them know I'm aware anyway. I'm not too worried because I know for certain my forums won't die out. Doom.sx is a bit of a more serious community than this one, but they're both for fun for different kinds of people. Shounen is for people who wanna discuss anime and not post too seriously, and Doom is for people who want a chill community but are more into Dark/Evil themes.

But again, thanks for the kind words they mean a lot!

lol tru, I'm not using a huge monitor so I hadn't seen this. Thanks for letting me know though, I'll look into fixing this soon!

I like the simplicity of the design, unfortunately I'm not sure how trendy anime forums are right now.

Unfortunately not very trendy, however I never really go for things that'll be huge. I prefer building small communities, if they blow up then that's a plus for me :)

Thanks though, designed it myself although it's not entirely complete yet. I tried to step away from what everyone else is doing with their forum designs currently.

the forum is cool af i love it

Noisy - January 13, 2018, 9:20 pm

You make quite nice forums, Didn't you have a forum with the same anime related theme however?

NGMA - January 13, 2018, 9:25 pm

You had me at shitpost haha

The theme is brand new, took me a week to craft it. Aside from that my only other forum I doom.sx :)

Thanks for the kind words though!

Haha good to hear, hope to see you around the site!

Another nice looking forum, Nightmare. Anime isn't my thing so I won't be signing up but keep up the good work. The theme looks good, I am a fan of dark themes.

I am currently part of Doom.sx and it's a great community so far. Hope the activity picks up more soon.

lol that's actually hilarious, but yeah I'm aware of the problem I just haven't made time to purge spammers. No reason yet really, no activity ATM.

Closing this as well,

However I'll definitely reopen this sometime after I finish Doom v2.

Expect a more advanced version than the first Shounen theme, with much more weeb content to offer!

Till then :)
