Thread: just got f\*\*\*ked my walmart

Syfer1234 - January 13, 2018, 3:19 pm

i know its stupid and not a huge deal but its really pissing me off. my phone is completely fucked like i have to fuck with the charger forever to get it to start charging with the wire wrapped around my shitty phone just to get it to charge and i cant touch or do anything with it and im doing this 5-10 times a day.

i was gonna drive to walmart and buy a new phone but i saw their website offering free "2 day" shipping which is just a bull shit scam. i just wanted a phone asap so i said ok cool ill get that just get high and wait 2-3 days NOPE.

phone shipped the next day and its arriving in 4-5 days. so they're "free 2 day shipping" is a scam just to trick you into buying their shit. thats the same time frame as ordering some shit off amazon with basic shipping. it says order on monday get it wednesday. well i ordered on the 11th and i dont get my shit until the 16th almost a week.

fuck you

edit my shit ass phone isnt even charging anymore. fuck walmart. my boycott with them begins now i will never step foot in a walmart as long as i live.

I think you mean to repost this in the item's Walmart reviews.

gianni - January 13, 2018, 3:32 pm

First off, no one cares. Go post this for a review or some shit on Walmarts website. Next, you ordered it on the 11th which means it takes a day to ship based on the time of day you ordered it which would be Friday and then it ships out which is 1 day and now its the weekend which means it's not a business day. Most companies don't move shipments and don't deliver on weekends unless you specifically bought the shipping for it.

Extortian - January 13, 2018, 4:10 pm

LMFAO!!!! This is the best review by far.

EpicStuntz - January 13, 2018, 6:59 pm

Dude nobody cares about you or your shitty phone

This is the truth. OP should listen to this post. OP should hit up Google Reviews or Yelp.

Use Amazon instead. 1 day shipping if you have prime.

Reversbro - January 14, 2018, 9:44 am

What phone is it lol

Buy it from amazon then

Truly - January 14, 2018, 9:47 am

1st world problems, I can't wait an extra 2 days for my $700+ phone. When some people wake up every morning trying to figure out what they will be eating that day.

yrnGarry - July 21, 2018, 8:42 am

Haha I don't know why people are hating. This is funny.

Almonds - July 21, 2018, 8:47 am

Man that is bullshit!

But on the bright side, reminds me that I have a package coming in today ?

Astraviruzz - July 21, 2018, 8:49 am

Why the fuck you buy phone from Walmart ?Go to fucking T Mobile and get one from there I know its little bit expensive there but it worth.

The cheaper you buy the shittier product you get.

NoSuchAgency - July 21, 2018, 11:03 am

This is why u buy an actually good phone rather than the shitty cheap ones

.edit - July 21, 2018, 11:29 am

What phone did you buy? Not sure why you expected Walmart to deliver on time lmao

sssniwerwolf - July 21, 2018, 1:30 pm

Noceur - July 21, 2018, 1:34 pm

Toasties - July 21, 2018, 1:42 pm

Is it a 2 day guarantee? Get your money coin back.

DenizZ - July 21, 2018, 2:38 pm

You had to buy from the Lumbridge general store, we send it immediately because we use green dragons to deliver packages.

Muscleboy - July 21, 2018, 3:27 pm

You should definitely use Amazon instead.

It might not sound realistic but we have employee that works with dragons, his name is Bard the Dragon Slayer (he finished the quest). He caught a few baby green dragons (now grown up) and now we use them to deliver packages man.

Un-Named - July 21, 2018, 11:36 pm shopping at walmart is already bad enough. lazy workers, spilled shit everywhere, 1 register open for 50 people... what made you think using the website would be any more coordinated?

I was going to recommend the same. There are 6 months prime available easily. even I sell 5-7 countries amazon prime.

Windslash - July 22, 2018, 7:49 am

Fairly old thread but since it's already bumped, I'll just type something for future users to be aware of:

- First off, never ordered anything from Walmart, so don't hunt me down for lacking the knowledge. I know Walmart isn't the best company to especially order phones, try actual phone service companies, T-Mobile, Verizon, Sprint.. etc.

- I mean it does say "2 day shipping" but it's only within business days, and perhaps maybe the delivery company you received the package from doesn't operate within business hours, same accounts for Walmart to get them to send it to USPS, FedEx.. etc. So you could be unlucky as they might be unavailable in the resident you're at.

- You ordered free 2 day shipping, and you complain about it arriving 4-5 days later, note: it is 2 days to get the product shipped, it does not hold accountable for how long it takes the company to deliver your items. Who knows, maybe your Walmart is very far away, and they will take extra day for the package to arrive, assumed since you decided to order it online even though you can take 1 hour off your day to visit Walmart.

- From past experience, I purchased a computer from a computer company and I ordered 3 day shipping and paid extras, sad to say, I ordered it on a wrong day, I ordered on Wednesday and Thursday passed, Friday passed, was expecting it to ship on Saturday, well, turns out they don't work on Saturday or Sunday, so they couldn't get it shipped, fast forward to Monday, they, it's been 3 days and they finally shipped it, took another 4 days for it to be delivered to my house. So basically 9 days of waiting for a 3 day shipping. I actually wasn't too happy about this but logically speaking, I can't complain.
