Thread: Scammed \$150 by Yuri Homenya uid=3682988 AKA alecoq, ganache

Profile of user - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3682988> Was exchanging LTC for PP- switched to skrill after he had issues with payments.

Hooray, after waiting for about 2 hours- I will finally finished this exchange. I waited about 15 more minutes, still without receiving payment on skrill. I figured he falsified the transaction image; after reading the skrill TOS I asked for another, less sketchy proof of transaction. He provided this.

Post a deal dispute, sorry for your loss.

Always use a middle man, people are petty.

Almonds - January 21, 2018, 10:33 pm

As an update- Yuri has shown no attempt at resolving.

Always use a middle man with dealing.

Lukos1234 - January 26, 2018, 5:31 pm

Was about to do a deal with him then checked the reps, saw there was an open scam report so suggested a middle man, dude was okay at first and told me ok go for it, I come up with an MM he doesn't want to, I suggest he comes with his own MM then suddenly :

User is sketchy as hell lmao.
