Stixio - January 20, 2018, 4:44 am

Hello there People.

I just wanna warn you all that the site Spin.gg is owned by a known scammer here on Hackforums.net.

The scammer I'm talking about is Don Vasquez. He has done multiple scams in the past. I can admit that I was dumb enough to get scammed of him aswell. I was scammed for $300 BTC in regards of getting my csgo gambling site started off. Im in the process creating a scam report for that.

But you can find multiple scam reports here

I'm the one owed $550.

He told me about scamming someone called "fayaN" the other day.

I know fayaN, pretty sure it's embeR now, he owns CSGOTip, and I'm pretty sure he's a member here

Did everybody get scammed the same way?

Well, I wasn't wrong!

The whole CSGO gambling thing died down after steam's announcements and bans, now it's starting to get out of hand again.
