Thread: This pretty neat dog mask came in the mail today

canine - January 20, 2018, 9:42 am

I ordered it off of ebay like a month ago and forgot about it until the delivery boy rang the door bell and woke me up from precious sleep. I was prepared to battle because I was not informed of his intentions at my abode. However when I opened the door and offered my package I immediately dropped my guard and participated in the exchange by signing for the delivery. It was a quite pleasant experience honestly.

Anyway here's the mask. I am a practical man so I would like to get some use out of this thing. Have some fun, you feels me? Any suggestions?

I have tried to take a sip from my cup of Coca-Cola and hit a blunt with the mask on. Both were unsuccessful unless I popped off the muzzle. But then it's just a leather mask with dog ears which bothers me so I don't think I'll be taking the muzzle off anymore.

So, would you suggest buying a hollow object long enough to place in my larynx to minimize spillage?

That would be an optimal setup. Spillage is unacceptable in my humble opinion. Whatever you are fed, you must swallow.

It's a fetish thing. The people in the BDSM realm have very dominate thoughts.
Either dominate, or be dominated really.

When the non-dominant one is dressed as a dog, it gives the other pleasure I'm assuming.

I am not into this shit so I truly don't know. Just a guess.
