This has been solved, thanks.

Hi everyone,

Apologies if this has been addressed, but I have met the requirements for R3KT usergroup and haven't been auto added.

Does it take a while to process or have I missed something?

Thanks!

You have to pay for it, don't you? Then put yourself in said usergroup manually here:

A process runs once a day that checks accounts to see if they are eligible and adds them to the group if so. You'll need to wait until that happens.

No, he has over 1000. 1000 days ago would be April 27 2015 and his registration date was Feb 2015.
