Thread in question: <https://hackforums.net/index.php>

All the proof you need to see he bought the method from me recently
<https://imgur.com/a/P5vle>

In the thread above he openly admitted to selling my method because he claimed it's public (it's not). He then threatened to release it for free and also continue reselling it.

Obvious leaching and reselling without my permission. Your honor I rest my case.

Edit: now he's giving it away for free <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5788446>

You wrote your own version based on mine?

It's called leaching which is disallowed on this forum.

Also I won't be replying to you anymore you are clearly lying and reselling without my permission.

You literally had the same steps and everything dude.

[deleted] - link you ended up posting as a "comment/reply" but deleted fast.

I honestly don't care about this method as it was basically common fucking sense and anyone with a brain that stays in loop with rewards most likely knows about this. It's just the fact its time consuming no one would really care to do it. It isn't rocket science.

This is public shell even says refer a friend as many times as you want aka public

aka publicThen stop saying it is any different dude.

You keep making the argument "compare" doesn't matter.

It was same steps besides, you included a name of a VPN.
