Thread: Any forums for thieves or stealing? Like hack forums but for irl.

JustAManWithoutAPlan - January 22, 2018, 7:26 pm

Title explains it all, I'm just looking for a forum to teach me how to be a rogue. Never know when you need to break out of handcuffs or escape a hostage situation, and I've always been intrigued by the craft itself. Anyone know any forums for people like me who wish to spread their knowledge?

Kash Money - January 22, 2018, 7:39 pm

www.youtube.com

issa good start LOL

Deany - January 22, 2018, 7:44 pm

yup username checks out, has no plan when he gets caught by the popo LOL

oRequiem - January 22, 2018, 7:45 pm

Forums like that are a thing? Wtf.

Comexa - January 22, 2018, 7:45 pm

Try watching The Godfather and various other monster movies fbi.gov is a really good forum about this

Black Diamonds - January 22, 2018, 8:52 pm

There's a nice little subreddit on that. Id post the link, but I don't think I'm allowed to link other forums, so go to google and type in Reddit stealing and it should pop up.

CyberStrike - January 22, 2018, 9:45 pm

Are you crazy? A forum to discuss crimes gotta be crazy to discuss anything real there. The police would be all over that. Heck even here you gotta stay aware, get caught up in some bullshit. That forum would prolly have quite a few dope heads as well. All bad !

Leo Mikaelson - January 23, 2018, 2:51 am

There is a forum all about stealing.. Find it here

SlushPuppy - January 23, 2018, 3:06 am

check on reddit. there's a subreddit there, they're all fucking noobs tho. stealing shampoo from a store lmao

Jakuzure - January 23, 2018, 5:49 am

There are lots of sites about shoplifting, fraud and overall blackhat stuff, mostly on the darknet but some clearnet aswell (usually they end with .to or .biz)

If you know the right people you will know the forums/markets. I wouldnt recommend trying this stuff because you can easily get raided and arrested, its a tough business. I personally know a guy that had to do 3 years because of defrauding a big company, he was caught withdrawing money from an ATM with his faked bank account. All that shit only for a meager 50k lmao.

Personally i rather make money with shopify and crypto. But if you have perfect OPSEC etc. i guess blackhat stuff can be worth it for some people that know what they are doing.

Anything you want to learn about stealing IRL - I can teach you.

Scriph - January 23, 2018, 2:57 pm

You won't find anything on regular web.

Elitas - January 23, 2018, 3:01 pm

I can teach you lock picking if you PM me. Only started a few months ago when I got my kit. I'm alright at doing it, but I know what you're supposed to do - The rest is just practice and I also understand all of the terms.

Good times.

REEEEERRRE - January 23, 2018, 9:16 pm

Nice meme. Even if there was, I'm sure no one will openly discuss it.

monsterjam - January 23, 2018, 9:33 pm

You are on the right place. Hackforums is a great forum for thieves. Just look at some of the ads or marketplace here. Example is the member Vyrez who claims you can make $5000 plus a month or $25,000 a month before he delete the $25,000 thread.

Anyway Vyrez is selling a $39.99 ebook that claims you can make $5000 a month. This person is a thief and know how to trick people. If I was you I wouldn't buy the ebook. Just create an ebook with bogus stuff and start selling crap here. You'll do good stealing people money. You can make the claim "Made $500,000 a year using this method."

Hah, there are people who repossess properties and they have a tool which can allow them to get past most locks instantly, like in 10 seconds, lol.

Takes me a good minute to get back most alright locks, simple locks takes me few seconds, harder ones I just can't do, no patience!

It's basically a gun with a pick on the end of it that jimmies it by pulling the trigger.
