Product & Service Review Requests

How to request a review.

If you don't know the Appraisers name and want to know more about what we are aiming to do, check out our current thread [\[Official Appraisers\] General Recruitment #1 - Open](#)

We would like to ask the community to tell us what products or service you want us to review! If there is multiple requests to review the same product, we will try to make that item or service a priority. The product or service must not be your own (unless you want to give us a vouch copy).

Please use this form when requesting a product review:

We will review any and all services, if you are willing to include a vouch copy, please fill out the little application so I can check it out!

We will probably begin official reviews within the next ~2 weeks

Contact Lrr or Divined directly, I think it would be the best option.
They are pretty busy sometimes and may forget.

Twiddles thumbs

Guess Im a have to slap Lrrr upside the head then. lol

I do not really need a review, but always interested in 3rd party opinions about what I am selling.
Honest feedback is the best possible after all. ?
