I just want a place where I can share my thoughts/plans see what other people think about it. Open to everyone to come in and chime in. I want a telegram where people can come in and relax talk about cryptocurrency whatever it maybe mining, investing, or anything related. What I plan to do is do my own coin thoughts usually a coin I'll be investing in or holding. Again anyone can come in I love talking to people as it's a great way to learn from one another.

I'll be making my own calls as I've been working on TA I've been doing fine with it made some good suggestions in the past if you've ever seen my posts MORE important learning and getting better at it getting feedback is important to improve.

Made a promising call join to find out
