Thread: Are Yeezy 350 v2s dead?

Hey Hackforums,

So a question to all sneaker heads and "hypebeasts" like myself I thought I would start a discussion on whether the yeezy 350 v2s are officially dead now. In my opinion they are oversaturated and now just boring. Seems like everyone and their nan has a pair of either beluga 2.0s or zebras.

Thoughts?

no, you have no idea what you are talking about. Obviously some pairs will be more limited than others,

In my opinion, they are oversaturated. I live in a big city and i've seen around 5 people in the same day wearing beluga 2.0's.

I like the OG Yeezy 700 cause it looks dope as fuck and not a lot of people like it.

There are a lot of V2s floating around, and there are a lot of colorways, but if the upcoming V2s dont have too much stock, the hype will be there and they still will sell for a lot

I know exactly what I'm talking about lol. The silhouette itself has been oversaturated and has flooded the market now. There are hundreds of thousands of v2s in circulation now I feel it's time for a new shoe
