Positivity comes from the mind. No matter what life throws at you, doors that shut in your face, and no matter how down you feel. You will always have someone that cares for you, loves you, and looks over you no matter what. You just have to keep your chin up and keep on thinking positive. ?

I see people in 2 ways: people I like a lot and people I don't like that much.

When I decided to invest in crypto, ETH gave me the same feeling. I liked it a lot. So I invested $400. And now it got to x4

I still feel the same about ETH so I'd love some more of it in my wallet haha

HF keeps getting better and better.

Positive thing to say? Mhmm... Just smile.

One time this person was just so pissed off for some reason, and I was walking by when I noticed her. I smiled at her, and kinda gave her "everything is gonna be okay" face. That pissed off face disappeared, and gave more a "ya this isn't worth it... life is too short" kinda face.

True story.

Write something positive -

Save Earth , Plant daily 1 tree , a mango tree planted will give fruits to eat + supplies oxygen in exchange of carbon dioxide and other harmful air particles. 1 person * 1 tree = 365 trees which is really simple.

Save Water + less use of non renewable source of energy. Be positive(to build) which would bring happiness to you and other's.

You already did wonderful job OP , not only spend money for giveaway but bringing positivity towards people really appreciate it.
