Thread: Is this a Abuse? Can I say I'm abused by staff?

eXceptional - January 28, 2018, 11:59 pm

Can anyone please tell me if "Asshole" is an abuse? According to me, it is an Abusive word and what if a staff calls you asshole? What should be done in regards to it?

Please see the rules for what should happen if a staff member abused another member - <http://prntscr.com/i717ra>

Biggy - January 29, 2018, 12:06 am

My God. Please leave HF. Dumbest shit ever.

I hope Omni rips you a new one.

SIM-2223238 - January 29, 2018, 12:07 am

No it's a opinion. I think you're a asshole too.

Any may I know why should I leave HF? For just asking a question? Or maybe you're a part of this conversation and you know what I am talking about. Do you actually want to save that staff member? Is this the reason I should leave HF.

I recommend you to file a police report.

Everyone is entitled to have their own opinion. If someone thinks you are an asshole, he has the right to tell you. No staff abuse whatsoever.

Because you asked a member that was doing favors for others to provide you with a fake vouch. He had respect for the legitimacy of the marketplace and then turned down your offer to give a FAKE vouch.

You then proceeded to -3 this member who was doing nothing but trying to earn a place here. You are the sole reason new members do not stay on the forum.

Minimalist was right. You are an absolute prick and should not be welcomed here.

Not to mention, I'm sure Omniscient does not give any fucks if staff call people ass holes. This isn't a retail store, this isn't a democracy, he can run HF however he wants, and I've seen him say way worse than asshole.

It would depend greatly on how the word was used in context or if you were directly attacked with the word and also how you interpenetrate the word.

I do not think of this word to be offensive but then again others may but it does depend on how the word was used.

For example only:

- 1.) You are an "Asshole".
- 2.) Please stop being an "Asshole".

Both of the above example use the same word in different context and would mean 2 different statements. 1 could be offensive and the other not.

So again, it depends on how the word was used and the context it was used with. For me, the word is not offensive tho, if someone want to call me an "asshole", so be it, i maybe an "asshole" to them.

Thanks

Btw this is the reply. He didn't call you an asshole, he said it makes you look like one. If you found yourself in his sentence which wasn't pointing any fingers, then you awarded yourself that title.

He did not call you an "Asshole" or imply in any way that you are an "Asshole".

He clearly stated that "It makes you look like an asshole".

Sorry but nothing wrong there.

Thanks
