I am looking for a coder to help me to finish a projects(Run4Me) with me.

If you know you're not good or below average, do not waste my time or post on my thread.

Do not PM me especially if you started coding last week.

I am paying for this project and probably will be branded as partnership and long term payments for request updates.

If you're interested, let me know by PM.

Requirement:

- PHP knowledge (OCR, Image manipulation, Image recognition)
- Know how work CLI with VirtualBox &/or VMware
- Have the time to spend on Skype to show you what I exactly need

The text of this thread was "copied" from this one:
