Sales stopped for now. Opening soon again!

Shoto - February 10, 2018, 12:04 pm

Can I please receive a vouch copy?

JohnG0tti - February 10, 2018, 12:30 pm

I would like a vouch copy and look right into it and give a detailed review.

M?xim - February 10, 2018, 12:35 pm

Thanks for showing interests. Will just collect a few posts of users who are interested in reviewing and then contact 2-3 of them tomorrow.

GLWS OP! ?

You complete the surveys (5 required) and you get the ebook. Pretty straight forward.
The service is provided by AdWork Media.

Maxim gave me a copy of Master Income to review it.

I have been trying the main method for a couple of days now (got the copy before he posted the thread) and also read the two bonus methods.

To start off with the main method

This is actually the first eBook I've read that chocked me because of the content and the potential in the methods. I have my own source of income but I will still be using the main method as an extra income from now on. It is described in step-by-steps, so all you have to do is to follow the steps and make money. No requirements. From your computer, anywhere. It is a whitehat method which you can do during breaks in school for example. I can definitely assure that buyers will be pleased with this method and happy that they bought Master Income. It has my vouch. Made money on my first hour.

Two bonus methods

I didn't feel like spending time on these two because the main method worked so well. But definitely, if you for some reason wouldn't like the first method, any of the two bonus methods could easily replace it. Again, well-written and described in details. He gives some great advise as well when using the methods.

Last words

I know that money making methods has a bad reputation, but this one is really a step in the right direction.

Well done Maxim. Master Income has my vouch.

I got everything straightened out.

It was an old account from 2012 that had a negative balance. Once I paid it off they restored my account.

Note to self:

When your Xbox account gets jacked, don't forget to call PayPal to cancel the pre-authorized debit after you close your bank account that's linked to it. The charge for $29.99 went to collections and built up interest. I paid them $58.18 last night for 3 months of Xbox LIVE that I never even got to use back in 2012.

Not sure what the hell is wrong with Adwork Media... I've completed at least 4 surveys and it keeps sending me to the same survey(nothing to do with any of the surveys provided on the checkout screen) and the survey is basically asking about my ISP.... Once I complete it, it doesn't credit my account and i've done this on a VPN also and it's the same thing everytime. Any body else have this problem?
