You've posted a screenshot of the page. You need to post how good posts do. If you make a post and get less than 50 likes in first 10 minutes, it's not worth $90, more like $20-$40

Lol. Just post engagements like EVERY other person selling a social account. What's so hard? 46K is fuck all IMO.

Exactly its inactive. You are asking WAY too much its probably not even worth $5. Engagement is the only important thing when it comes to stat pages. 45k doesn't mean anything when you get no impressions, likes, shares or comments.

The price was 90$ and after someone post ur page on public u increased it lmao, however, u should know that u don't have high activity on the page so you need to think again about your price.
