I'm sorry I'm not going to be threatened while I sleep. I'm not trying to make this as a joke I'm being serious I'd rather get it out in the air then be extorted in PMs.

So basically game freak 'told' me the shell gas method, following that I had this idea to which he agreed to: ((also I've had to make several alterations to the method to make it work effectively, I'm not even sure we can call it the same method anymore.))

The deal is he undercut my price (not in the agreement) and he just never talked about the 50/50 split ever. So I assumed he thought about it like I did, assuming we both get roughly the same sales like usual why would we split 50/50 when that would just make 100% lol. But after talking to the dude for days about other stuff and him seemingly being chill he sends me this while I sleep (after I tell him I got a sale for $40 he claims he wants it to stop selling but then has a smarter idea:)

Then he begins threatening me how he's talked to his 'high rep friends' Imfao:

And he says he's going to get the6ix closed for reselling it. Which he has no proof of btw

No,I'm not looking for sympathy. No, I'm not looking for anyone to take my side and I could care less what whatever 'high rep friends' come and say to be completely honest. I'm just not gonna get threatened in PMs when he clearly breaks his end of the bargain by not keeping the price $50 nor sharing the 50/50 like we talked about. I'm going to continue selling and continuing providing good support and free gas until told by staff otherwise.

Also note I have a life and classes all day, so when I don't repsond for four hours it's not because I'm scared or whatever it's because I'm doing shit. I'm also not going to argue, I've laid basically everything out, I'm going to focus on my customers and IRL shit.

Also because I realize I didn't make it obvious this is the user who I refer to:

This post has no ill intentions and I do not harbor any hate against any user in the situation, all is fair in Love and war.

As you can see below from game freak. This completely resolved.

doesn't owe you nothing

Oh lol, then yeah you have a point dude. Hope this eventually gets sorted. Take care

Jake???????????????? - February 7, 2018, 11:15 am you're just making a joke out of yourself over this stupid ass gas method at this point, this shit is so blindly public that im surprised you guys make even a dollar from this edit: ben is post banned for a day nig nog for a day

And then you were bashing me. I've never had any communication with you or Ben about this method. I've never even messaged you guys, you guys are the ones that come to me first.

I don't like how you're saying you're going to get me closed.
Falsely get me closed? Because I am selling a method for Shell just like you are?
Damn, that's crazy. Do you know how many other members here sell the same thing as eachother? Many. And you're SO butthurt over the fact I know what I'm doing. I've been doing this for quite a while and I'm sorry that you think you "OWN" this and nobody else is allowed to post it.

You deal with Ben, I have no involvement with the two of you. Leave my name out of this and I will continue selling until I'm told otherwise by staff.
