Thread: Graphic designer searching for partnership!

Tsukiyama - February 7, 2018, 8:10 am

Good evening, i'm getting bored working as freelancer, so i'm looking for any offers to partnership. I have big portfolio in different kind of designs, so i'm open for all offers (it can be shopify, SEO projects etc.).

My graphic services (little peek of portfolio): <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5759742>
If you interested in my skills, we can discuss more and i'll show my full portfolio. ?

I'm not really interested in "still in progress" projects, i'm more interested in already progressive projects, that needs full-time designer.

Hello there.

I'm currently starting a whole new country based PTC site and willing to give you a 10% of profits to join my team.

You just get the GFX. Nothing more.

Lmk.
