Thread: What is your favorite type of Sparkling Water?

Sigma - February 8, 2018, 4:47 pm

I just started to drink sparkling water and I cannot get enough of it. I personally love Pellegrino; super tasty.

Saltpeter - February 8, 2018, 4:48 pm

I don't really care for sparkling water to be honest.

Kuso - February 8, 2018, 4:49 pm

Actually some of the new sparkling water that came is out is actually good.

Still not my thing though. I just rather drink water lol.

I actually have a soda stream and make my own. Dope on a rope, I recommend it.

I've thought about getting one of those but that would lead to me drinking far too much soda.

I have seen ads for those. They actually look really good.

Pellegrino with lemon/lime

Do they come in those flavors or do you add the lemon/lime?

Prophett - February 8, 2018, 8:38 pm

Can't drink sparkling water; it tastes like battery acid. My girl drinks that shit all the time.

I never used to like it either. It feels good in my stomach and helps with my acid reflux.

God, I fucking love sparkling water.

Pellegrino is good, La Croix as well. I usually just get store brand seltzer water because I'm broke :P

Pellegrino is it for me. I will have to try La Croix, I have not heard of that brand.

They have good flavors, pear-peach, grapefruit, etc.

I would recommend Dasani as well. Their lime and raspberry lemonade flavors are fantastic.

I could go on for days about sparkling water :P

cracks open another can

I actually started drinking it in an effort to stop drinking so much soda, and ended up liking it more than I liked soda lol

I really hate sparkling water, I used to call it 'cry water' as it would make my eyes tear up.

Do you drink soda at all?

You're a peasant if you don't drink Voss.

Yeah occasionally at parties, but the sugar and flavor in soda make up for the nasty taste of pure sparkling.

I used to be that exact same way, but a month ago I started to notice it helped with my digestion so I drink it all of the time now.

I always find that it makes the throat kind of sore.

Not a huge fan for sparkling water so to speak, but I will admit I am a sucker and pay the extra for the Fiji water bottles at times...

Something about the mineral content makes it taste better.... IDK...

I agree. I get Fiji every time I go into a store for water. The bottle just makes it look so much purer.

When all the homosexuals, transgenders, and mentally ill reunite this is what you get. A sparkling water thread.

I've never been a fan of sparkling water. Forgive me guys.

luke - February 10, 2018, 5:52 pm

Carbonated water has to be one of the worst drinks I've ever tried personally.

I know people who drink litres upon litres and I can't understand why.

Fiji has a different aftertaste than other 'regular' brands such as Poland Spring or Nestle.

When buying water bottle cases, I buy the cheaper brands like Poland Spring, but if I'm buying just 1 bottle from a store because I got thirsty, I'll opt for Fiji.

For sparkling water, I drink anything carbonated!

Pellegrino is good, Perrier is good, and my parents are Turkish, so I drink Turkish Mineral Water (sparkling) all the time. It has a much harsher carbonation, it's vastly different from the brands in the States like Pellegrino.

Its the mineral content, compare bottles dude....

I probably wouldn't drink the sparkling water if it didn't help with my digestion.

I don't think this is the direct cause of homosexuals being free. Just speculation here, but they're probably trying to take over the world ways not sparkling water related.

Sigma - February 10, 2018, 8:02 pm

Definitely not the direct cause for them haha.

Then there's me.... I paid for a bottle of Co2, regulator, and a few hoses and bits so I could make my own carbonated beverages :D

Imo, yeah. It cost me around $30 for the tubing and co2 fill, I was gifted the tank and regulator. It allows you to make some pretty cool drinks, i.e. carbonated cocktails, carbonated Gatorade, carbonated lemonade (really bomb), etc.

With certain setups its even possible to carbonate fruit like strawberries. Worth the money, yes, and I had a fun afternoon putting it together.

Shuxas - February 13, 2018, 7:37 am

I've tried sparkling water a few times, but just couldn't get into it , the taste really deterred me, so I prefer regular water for now atleast

Tsukiyama - February 13, 2018, 7:41 am

I love sparkling water, i prefer the local one with lemon.

Sigma - February 13, 2018, 10:12 am

Sparkling water and Vodka isn't bad either. It is more on the healthy side of drinking.

Almonds - February 13, 2018, 10:29 am

I prefer Topo chico, with lime.

spradebassen - February 13, 2018, 11:04 am i love drinking sparkling water- id choose it easy over soda.

i love the most common flavour; citrus (lemon)

Sparkling wine is champagne. ?

I usually drink Korbel Sweet Rose, but right now I'm enjoying a bottle of Cava Brut.
