Im posting this again because I put it in the wrong section at the first time.

I recently paid MANDARIN (his user name before he changed it to xx 0x0 xx) for a job using BTC, In regard to the job we agreed on certain terms that were not met meaning he did not complete his job on his end.

The only reason I went forward with MANDARIN (xx 0x0 xx) is simply because the abundance of good reviews he had so you can imagine how taken back I was when I did not receive what I paid for.

I tried to ask him for a refund like he said I'm entitled to after 3 days if he 's not complete the job and he kept ignoring me.

Im not allowed yet to post screenshots but i have everything to prove that this is what happened

I hope to get my money back somehow or at least help people that just want to do honest business to be aware also from users with a lot of positive feedback too,

Thanks

Your 'proof': <https://i.imgur.com/nswkuDm.jpg>

Conclusion:

You will have to post your PM's from Hackforums in order to settle this as there is nothing that suggests that the one you talking on discord with is the user that you accuse here on HF.

Next time use HF where you send messages and when dealing with amounts above 50$ i recommend using a vouched/trusted middleman.

Either way, sorry for your loss.

Read my reply again. The chat you have on screenshot is discord, not HF.
