Thread: remove the posting limit for regular members

excah uwu - February 8, 2018, 9:25 pm

please, it's super annoying. like a minute? at least lower it to 20-30 seconds.

Ben Shapiro - February 8, 2018, 9:34 pm

Why?

What's the issue with having a one minute timeout?

You do realize tbks is going to be instantly denied, the rule is there to obviously prevent spammers and/or make it harder to spam.

oh fuck off, if i was upgraded u would not be saying this or id neg fuck u

Biggy - February 8, 2018, 9:38 pm

This is in place to stop spamming. This should not be removed.

Please don't be mean. :'(

This should not be removed - this is placed to stop spamming.

The fact that you just joined here a few moments ago and already want to post so much, cursing at other members and know all about the reputation system here, SMELLS ANS SCREAMS "multi" to me. So fuck off to you as well.

Yeah, was about to mention this.

Hmmmmmm OP...

KyFu - February 8, 2018, 10:00 pm

This post is beyond ridiculous. Just Joins

Expects post time-out to be less than a minute because can't afford to upgrade to L33T

* Expects to be at the grace of God's will Makes sense.

No, it won't be removed or shortened. This is to prevent spam and other unwanted gestures from regular members.

flavoral - February 8, 2018, 10:01 pm

Want to lift the limits? upgrade your account. end of story ?
