Thread: Extended mousepad?

wit - February 10, 2018, 6:47 pm

Anyone have an extended mousepad?

I've been thinking about getting one, the one I have is that $1 custom one that was floating around a few years back, but its getting pretty beat.

Are they any good?

Any recommendations for cheap (sub $15-20) mousepads?

I use my bedsheets. Cheap and longer than what I can stretch my arm out over.

Whoever pays $15 for a mousepad is a fool. Get yourself some covers to sit and chill on your bed.

Stretch the sheet over the bench. That would be pretty sweet if you found a cool Buzz Lightyear sheet like mine- wait no, don't take my idea.

Egyptian cotton is soft to the hand and will feel better than a mousepad, so long as the mouse can handle it

I have an Old School RuneScape one that is pretty nice, don't remember how much it was though.

Can't seem to find it on the site, only seem to have the normal sized mousepads in stock now.

This is the mousepad I have. I might have the medium though... either way it is very roomy and nice.

It's insane that you guys are paying so much for a mousepad. My laptop is worth half of the link in the post above his one. I gave the guy $10 and a cigarette for it.

By the way, go to the local homeless shelter or something and get something, anything for like 30%.

20$ for a good sized mousepad is pretty okay

I hate that I only spent 5$ on my mouspad because its small as shit and I cant flick in csgo

It's worth having space however I happen to be sitting. I can readjust my position and not need to readjust my mouse/mousepad since it's giant.
