Hello everyone,

So I initially contacted T.W.S in order to get a software idea I had developed. I called him up on Skype and we had a voice chat and everything seemed to be good. I was then researching his reputation and his past work and saw a few alarming things and the things he was saying just weren't adding up.

He told me he had other projects but they weren't a priority and and he could take however long he wanted because he was being paid tons of money?

So it got me thinking about him, if he's saying that to me about other people he's probably saying that to everyone and just trying to collect as much money as possible.

Anyways, the next morning I asked to cancel the project and he initially said he already started working on it so I told him a partial refund was fine.

I then asked him to see screenshots of what he'd done so far and finally he sent me this

I then asked to see a screenshot of the interface and he said he'd send me a GIF of it extracting data, I waited two days and he came up with all these crazy excuses like he was living in a motel, he was at work etc.

Yet he was online HF 24/7 browsing around trying to find more people to scam.

He still hasn't sent me anything other then that screenshot which isn't even from my program, as my program had nothing to do with stocks and if you look closely it says "ERR" which stand for Econimic rate of return. The software was suppose to extract information from yelp, what does that have to do with a stock program? So basically he sent me a screenshot from some random program he probably found online.

Code 11:14 AM

Why do you have time to by ub3r but not send me a gif?

TWS, 11:15 AM

because simple fact is you hired someone on hf and then started crying when you decided to go another route no one tells a developer there outsourcing to india thats a developers worst nightmare is indian outsourcing

i will send u a gif

11:15 AM

Send me $35 which I think is a OVERLY fair amount and we'll call the over and I'll remove the rep and not escalate and I'm sure if we both opened community alerts people would side with me given the "proof" you gave of some generic code

TWS, 11:15 AM

but if you open a scam report even after i send u a gesture of good faith payment

it will only make you look bad says your fake coder buddy it's not generic code it was a sample of code to show u i've been working on it and your acting childish

look

just send me your bitcoin addy

and ill send u some bitcoin

may be 15 may be more

idk yet

just stop acting childish

11:16 AM

Lmk when you have $35 worth.

TWS, 11:16 AM

and ill do good by you

how about i make it 25

dude

11:16 AM

If I don't have it by tonight I'm posting chat transcripts and your "proof"
We'll let the community decide.

TWS, 11:17 AM

i was just trying to save some to put it into the paypal

11:17 AM

How about that?

TWS, 11:17 AM

DUDE

11:17 AM

How about we let the community decide?

TWS, 11:17 AM

your the one not being civil or peaceful this morning

i'm trying to pay you and your acting like a mental midget

11:17 AM

Trying to give me half the money I sent you

TWS, 11:17 AM

give me your bitcoin address

dude i did some work

on it

i deserv to keep half

don't be a prick

give me your bitcoin address

11:18 AM

Send me the gif then if you did "work"

Are you going to send me $35 worth?

TWS, 11:18 AM

i've got 25 worth

if you don't want that considering it's worth more paypal

when you exchange it

then so be it

your getting more

then what you paid me

if i pay you in bitcoin

i don't see what the big deal is

11:19 AM

Lol it doesn't 2x

don't try to play me I used to deal with thousands in bitcoins weekly

dude

i'm not playing you do you even relize what your saying the ratio is 1.5 for bitcoin right now

your getting more

11:20 AM

Look man, $35 or I'll just let the community decide about you. I'm not negotiating down anymore

I don't even want bitcoin

It's creating more work for me

15n3J7WfXUVixGBV9jh6BDztgCrjJ3DnJW that's my address you decide, I really don't have time for this anymore

I like you man and think you're a funny guy but I'm firm with $35

dude

listen

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5798230>

theres a community alert

on you

thats your bitcoin cool

ill send u what i can in bitcoin and what i can in paypal

you wanna play childish games

we can

because your acting childish

TWS, 11:27 AM

<https://blockchain.info/tx/c24bb06f78d5940df65a3a27853ddb0b9b292eba9daed797cd205d04bceb5ac9>

15

ill send more via paypal instead

like i said

gesture of good faith payment

ill send proof

only making 15 bucks on something i finished is not gonna fly so in term ill send 15 more via paypal and i'm firm on that i got funds coming off hold later today

this will be settled via the forum

your child immature and have no place on a coding/hacking forum

bye

Anyways, you be the judge of if you want this guy working on your projects.

he did not get screwed over and thats not the entire chat log theres more to it. theres a limitation.
he got 15 of it back via bitcoin earlyer today. as a good faith gesture and he still posts a scam report.
who is the childish unprofessional one now and for your information he only posted this after i posted the community alert. i came clean first not him so this just proves others are as dull minded

That sucks. Assuming that this is C# (telling from the screenshot), you could get an independent/neutral C# developer to check the code out. I could do it for you if you want.
Unless I'm mistaken, you had contacted me about this before? Or was it another project?

That needs to be a full refund, 50$ if I'm reading both of your CA's correctly. Hell you should even send him 10$ extra for having to deal with your childish behaviour seriously..

CrudeCoder - February 11, 2018, 9:26 am

work was rendered this is all he gets work was rendered i'm not dealing with this fool anymore. and it proves to me how many decent hard working people are on here because it seems only the skids are posting backing up this person.

Tylers The Name - February 11, 2018, 9:27 am

Yeah a partial refund isn't going to fly. You sent me screenshots for some program related to the stock market? What does extracting business data from yelp have to do with the stock market?

At this point you've wasted like 2 hours of my time that I could've spent working with my clients. If we want to go off of how much 2 hours of my time is worth that'd be another $60

I just want the amount I sent you though and this will be the last time I do business with any member that doesn't have an established reputation in whatever service they're offering.

Renovatum - February 11, 2018, 9:27 am

You keep saying the work was rendered

Definition of rendered = provide or give (a service, help, etc.).

You've done none of that and not only did you not "render" anything you didn't even show me any screenshots of the application you supposedly had done.

I'd really appreciate if you didn't waste my time.

Wait what, now the proof you sent weren't even from the same project? Now you're saying you haven't finished the project?

That's from your own thread, your own post. So basically, you've been bullshitting this whole time and everyone's been right about it. You haven't done shit. You've taken on something you can't do and then you've given a partial refund (so you gain from that) without doing shit all. So you scammed him for $15 basically. ?

(Feb 11, 2018 10:57 AM)Arctic Wolf Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Somewhere along this I completely lost track of what he actually did.....Stick with one story

Here's a summary of the entire situation:

1. Tyler contacts the user regarding his service.
2. After a ton of excuses from TWS Tyler asks for the 50$ back that he sent.
3. TWS denies his claim and sends him fake proof (he actually confirmed this himself a few comments up, idek) that he worked on his project and thus will not be giving a full refund.
4. Tyler (rightfully) gets pissed off and threatens with a CA. (please note at this point Tyler is not yet fully aware that the proof provided was fake)
5. TWS thinks he's smart and creates a CA to counter Tylers CA (which is the legit one).
6. People immediatly notice his bullshit and now all he's doing is making it worse on himself by filling the story he made with tons of plot holes.

7. Tyler needs to get a full refund, lol.

CrudeCoder - February 11, 2018, 10:15 am

proof provided was not fake and a few comments ago he actually tried strong arming me out of 10 dollars extra he got a partial refund proof will be provided later due to me yelling over discord at some friends the sheriff was called.

i will be providing proof once i get this sorted that i did infact work on it his claims are outlandish and not factual there for he is not getting the full refund i've sent him 15 via bitcoin and 20 via paypal. I will not chalk it up to my loss's due to the fact hes the one who made this out to be more then it had to be to protect my services I posted the CA on him first shortly later he posted this scam report. to try and save face for him self. the partial refund is where i stand with this. he was firm on a partial refund of $35.00 ill be posting the full of what i sent him full code via a gif. he claims it's part of a stock application it is not his coder and him self are half brain damaged. hes taking it all out of context because of one function in the code i sent him and only bases his facts on that.

Anakin™ - February 11, 2018, 10:15 am

I'd be more than glad to analyze the code as a neutral 3rd party observer so you guys can settle the partial/full refund thing.

Silver Fang - February 11, 2018, 10:16 am

Hi,

Think some screenshots of the deal rules should be posted as evidence.

When i read this i was not sure if i read a warning to users or a deal dispute thread... might be good to clarify this by posting screenshots of the actual deal.

Can't decide, if a part of the project was done then a partial refund should be enough and at that point i would agree if there was a warning..

Either way, i'll take a look later on again.

The variable nomenclature is odd and doesn't indicate anything Yelp-related.

The code is also awfully written.

From this code, I call bullshit - nothing that indicates that this is related to your app. Maybe TWS can prove me wrong?

Show any piece of code which references Yelp. That's got nothing to do with Yelp what you posted. I'm not too good with C#, anyone know what the code actually is doing? With 'Stock' variables, I think OP might not be wrong that this has to do with stock trading.

This is T.W.S everyone, he actually posted this to his website haha , hate to be a douchebag and I'm usually very nice but I hate my time being wasted.

Now before hiring him would you want a guy like this in charge of anything? I wouldn't even trust him working at McDonalds and here he is trying to say he can code.

You are in the right, but I really hate your style.

In reference to the variables the one was ERR which is Economic Rate Of Return that has nothing to do with Yelp.

In reference to going low, yeah I didn't want to but at this point he's wasted hours of my time. He had the video on his website that he links to from HF... Anyone can find it by just clicking on his website in his thread.

As for the "dox" part I am unfamiliar with it but I looked up the definition "search for and publish private or identifying information about (a particular individual) on the Internet, typically with malicious intent.

" and I don't think I published anything private of him nor did I have malicious intent.

i had no such video on my website your full of lies and in a desperate attempt to get your full refund you stooped as low to find an old kickstarter simple fact is i posted proof and i stated in my tos only partial refunds if progress has taken place also you stooped as low as to sales trash me in my thread now your still making your self look bad

no it's not worth all of this i tried to on skype to be peaceful and civilized and he took it this far the only reason i posted a CA on him is because he kept saying he was going to post a scam report on me if people pay close attention they will see i posted the CA before he posted this.

he says i wasted his time the actual deal was for 300 bucks he sent me 50 i gave him $35 of of a 50 dollar refund and now hes resorting to sales trashing my dev sales thread and posting videos he claims he got off my site my site has had a landing page up on it since before he hired me for this project he got that video from a kickstarter i've got yet to delete. so there for he has attempted to dox me.

this is all i'm going to say unless something mature is posted,,,
