Thread: DEFCON 2018 - Who's going? - Possible HF Members Meet-Up!!

Silent Uprising - February 11, 2018, 9:16 pm

Alright so defcon may be a few months away, but that'll be here before you know it. I've been wanting to go for so long...And this may be the year I actually go.

Have you ever been to defcon before...those who have, mind sharing a bit of what goes on there? I've seen a lot of defcon talks and they are mostly all interesting.

PS - Would any HF members want to split a hotel/motel? Prices are so expensive idc if we have like 6 people in a room I don't need to sleep comfy lol i'd rather just experience defcon.

Saltpeter - February 11, 2018, 9:48 pm

I won't be there but I will be watching as much as I can of it online.

If I do go any year it will be next year as I'll be 21. I'm not going to vegas and NOT gambling. Fuck that.

SIM-3257834 - February 11, 2018, 11:40 pm

I always wanted to meet up HF members in place where my CC info can be stolen in my wallet and where my phone will connect to any fake tower. Ah a great place to become a victim to cybercrime by taking advantage of something so simple yet unfixable.

I'd just bring a USB killer and plug it into as many things I can. I would be the best and most unbeatable hacker in there.

SatanicBeefCakes - February 11, 2018, 11:45 pm

Like I'd meet anyone here at defcon are you actually nuts jesus christ what a terrible idea.

Bluffer - February 11, 2018, 11:47 pm

It wouldn't be hard to find the HF members at Def Con, just look for the autists.

Haha vouch for this open a "Make money on autopilot" Ebook Stand you'll find loads of HF users then

Although in all seriousness I may be going this year. A long way to travel but I plan a trip to uruguay around that time.. might tie it up together

TOM - February 12, 2018, 10:13 am

I will be there @DEFCON 18 Here i come! who else coming from HF ?

Sigma - February 12, 2018, 10:20 am

I am going to be watching it as well. There is always interesting things going on there.

B FOR BADASS - February 20, 2018, 4:23 pm

I have heard that is a good event but its expensive to be there and living in hotel is more of a problem as stuff costs a lot in Vegas...

Pre-eminent - February 20, 2018, 4:25 pm

I'll be watching some of the live streams, but sadly I can't come this year.

Agreed, it looks like a bunch of anti social wannabe hackers.

It's in vegas right? Who the fuck would go to vegas and spend it at a hacking convention?

Go get a lap dance and gamble away your life savings instead.

I'll PM you some of the channels if I find them again this year. Sorry, I can't be specific about where to find them, but it was honestly just some random channels and the quality was decent.

Purple Drank - February 20, 2018, 7:18 pm

Still haven't decided.

Probably won't get time n' will watch it online like last year.

Bandors should be really easy to spot.

I went last year and I had a blast, I got blackout drunk every night so the talks were a blur because I was hungover but it was a good time definitely recommend it if you're in the area.

Biggy - February 21, 2018, 2:00 am

Not going to be going myself, have fun though.

Canadian - February 21, 2018, 5:01 am

I honestly don't know what this event is. I'm going to Google it. I know there's something with a con in Toronto that happens and people dress like anime characters or something for Yeah OP, I am planning on looking into it at least. Likely won't be able to go because I am pretty busy. I've been watching livestreams and other bits and pieces from defcon for years now. I think Omni went one year and met a few HF members, but maybe that was a different event - I forget.

LuX98 - February 21, 2018, 5:06 am

Can't go this year but will watch online for sure!

N1l0c - February 21, 2018, 8:42 am

I'd love to go there but I'd have to travel around the world and that's too expensive for me atm. Hopefully next year.

SysAdmin - February 21, 2018, 8:43 am

Yeah, I mean I'll obviously be watching them online this year again and hopefully see some pictures/content posted on the forums from HF members showing themselves there and talking about their experiences.

CraftyBot - February 21, 2018, 10:24 pm

I would totally go I just don't got enough funds to go this year. I guess I'll just have to watch people go their on Youtube or some sort.

Pain - February 21, 2018, 10:26 pm

I would love to go but just as everyone said, funds are the issue. We should have a HackForumacon... Sounds something exciting severos - February 22, 2018, 2:45 am

Uh god... another def con that I can't attend QQ I've always wanted to attend one, but it's way too expensive for me (VISA+flight+ticket+living costs)... University should sponsor students to visit such stuff =,="

Renovatum - February 22, 2018, 4:41 am

I'd sleep in a room full of HF members, sure. Fuck the event, I'd be having enough fun with the NEETs like me trying to (and failing to) interact with me, while I do the same.

It'll be awkward, it'll be fun, we might even get a cheap front row seat to an IRL deal dispute.

Some people turn up with 20 year old Motorola flip phones. There is WiFi at deacon and it can be pre setup by installing and trusting the defcon WiFi cert/profile. Guy was walking about last year with 25 WiFi pineapples on his back calling it a WiFi cactus.
