Thread: OG Snap \(R*ch\)

viet - February 12, 2018, 6:23 am

Username: r*ch

Hint: the opposite of poor

Account got created like a week ago.

Gets daily (up to 15) random adds from random people. (Added by username)

I can't give the OG Mail because it's one of my private mails, I can delete it though if you want so then.

The username got obtained through a legit way, NOT hacked / jacked.

In case this gets pulled, I'll offer a full refund to the buyer.

Let me know how much I could get for it :)

Clean & fresh!

I'm bumping this thread up.

Appraisal for Kxvin's OG Snapchat Account.

Product Quality and Originality: This snapchat account is probably the best I have seen on the market if you do own it. "Rich" would be worth a lot due to the whole rich kids trend going on. One of the rich kids would probably try buy this which would make it worth even more. Try contact a few of the rich kids to see if they would make an offer on the account.

Appraisers Suggested Retail Price: I would say somewhere between 1.5-2.5k$ here. If you waited it could go for more to the right buyer.

If you haven't tried already I would recommend attempting to monetize the account to see what you can get out of it. The account may be worth keeping.

If you would like me to confirm that you own this snapchat please PM me.

Oh I did? On which forum was that? Imagine for $115 lol

And I'm willing to use a trusted Middleman during this deal and in case this gets pulled (what won't happen) I'll give a 100% refund. :)

Trust me son, you don't know me ^^

He may be wrong, but i've gotten my snapchat pulled back by the ones who sold me before even tho i changed the email and everything else, it's a little risky with a user with only 5 posts, trying to sell something this expensive.

Also hide the username, show it only to serious guys, cause there's something in the market now that can ban your snapchat.

I feel you guys and yea there is always a risk. My friend obtained the Snapchat for me and gave it to me without the OG Mail because it is one of his private mails, understandable. I mean I'm even willing to give the buyer a full refund in case this gets pulled (what won't happen because if it would then my friend would get in trouble) and he owns several OG Snapchats too so I really doubt he would pull this back.

I never really used this site but now I want to get rid of something so I thought about to do some things on here too.

Thanks for the advice to hide it, never thought this would happen to Snapchat Accounts too, I just've thought it's only at Instagram, PSN, ..

This is just an appraisal thread and not a sales thread. I'm not forcing anyone to buy this, the buyer will know there is a low risk buying it but yea.. I'd be happy to stay in contact with the buyer then in case something really happens.

When did that "scam" happen? Tell me when I scammed someone of another forum.
