When I went to withdraw my 0.006 btc it shows 0.001 fee.Am I doing something wrong?

Use a different currency if you don't like the fees. Dont use their platform to avoid them.

You obviously don't know what other exchanges charge. On bittrex the withdrawal fee is 0.005 BTC. Considering that Binance is 1/5th that then binance is comparably cheap.

That's nothing, trying withdrawing from Bitfinex with their limits.

Actually bittrex is still .001. They have not changed it in forever

Bitfinex is 10 times cheaper if I'm not mistaking.

You can transfer NEO to Bitfinex and withdraw it from there. (NEO withdrawal is free)

i like how everyone is assuming OP is simply moving their money from one exchange to another
