I'm familiar with a bit of SM programs, methods etc but curious what you'd recommend because I'm looking for a better way...

What would you recommend with FB, Twitter, Instagram in regards to keeping a searchable, professional looking but pretty much autopilot account? Not for growing really but for appearances. I've done it, but it looks like shit.

Mind sending me the @?

I can only speak for Instagram as that's what I'm good at, but there is an APP called preview, it's a Feed designer this will allow you to import photos and re-arrange till you got an aesthetically looking feed.

If you wish to make it more appealing search up VSCO, and on YouTube you can find many VSCO themes, have a play around and see which one suits your photos best then apply it to all of them, this way you will have a clean uniformed page.

May I ask if you intend to do regular posts or do you want to have a really good looking page for a one time setup.

If your answer is Regular posts then you can also use preview to schedule posts with tags and captions (it will just put a reminder on your phone to press post and do it manually), or you could use gramblr (free) on a computer and assign times and captions and it will post according to your time.

I'm starting to grow my Instagram account with the niche "computer setups", however, I'm not sure if I'm doing the right thing.

I try to upload twice every day, I have a bot running that follows people automatically and I'm using Pronouncer's instamass tool to comment on people's posts.

The name is @creativesetups , I really appreciate all the tips you guys might have for me!

Thanks.

Your theme is pretty clean, i suggest theming it a bit better, some photos are all over the place in different colours. Follow4Follow isnt the best method to gain growth. Try take a read of this it may help you manually grow

Thanks, I've tried keeping up with doing 3 posts "dark" & then going with 3 posts "light" personally thinks it's quite clean.

I've read through your guide, however I haven't really found anything I can change, any other tips?

Hey! So

I am botting 2 instagram accounts. I got a prepaid number and I added it to account A. But today I kept getting asked to add a phone number to account B. I couldnt do anything else. So I added the same phone number and it actually worked. But from my knowledge you can only use a number for a single account, so I'm asking: if I added the number to account B will account A not work with that phone number? Cause account A is more important to me.

Wanting to know if you know of any tools that arent costly that can do Twitter Botting. Also wanting to promote my CPA website which is blackhack. It includes about 9 game generators, and 9 social media 'boosting' landing pages. I have made $5 but thats shit.. Wanting to find ways of promoting a multi-niche site, I was thinking twitter botting? Any advice?

I believe I was shadowbanned, will my account go back to normal?

I think I was liking and following/unfollowing people too quick. Additionally, does use the same hashtags cause this?

I did test instamacro for 3 days (autolike feature)

I got shadow banned for that too... it lasted more than 3 weeks.

Most definitely. It's not as good as powerlikes, shoutouts, etc. but it's fenerally the cheapest way to grow your accounts on autopilot.

Hunion - March 16, 2018, 10:59 am

I have a minecraft facebook page, that used to get a lot of likes when I'd post some funny minecraft related memes. This was like 2012-2014. Now when I post stuff, it gets like 2 people reached, no likes. How can I engage the whole crowd these days?

It has 3000 page likes

Depends on what you're looking for. I'd recommend Jarvee for the amount of features it offers. However, if you aren't interested in more features besides following, unfollowing, liking, commenting, there are others like Followliker.

Someone might recommend other options. It's all very relative to what people prefer.

Hey (Famous Group)

First of all, thank you for hosting this thread.

Second, my question.

Is there a way to get a follower count for the multiple accounts that I manage, combine them all,

then embed that to my website?

Thanks in advance

Use Google translate, or sell the group to a native speaker. You're going to grow within the community (And country) the group is advertising itself to. There's a rolling effect on that and once it has gained such momentum it's quite hard to stop.

-If you're using Google translate, you can do anything to monetise the group. Just do what others do, like shoutouts (say that it's a Spanish audience, which is rare and might grab a few more sales) and do your own promotions.

You might need to draft a plan yourself for going forwards with your own monetization. Good luck

It's probably just dead.

Turboing is useless, as you can literally just revert the name change in your email.

Hey,

Do you know which content or stuff I need to post to gain followers?

My IG is @bier (this is beer in Dutch, German, etc.)

Now I post pictures about the craft beer I drink. Do you have better ideas so more people will follow the account?

Hope to hear from you guys. Thanks in advance.

Re-post beer from popular pages? That's my best bet. I've never ran any beer/alcohol related pages. Seems like a tough niche.

Hey famous, I have a 3 year old IG account and I have jarvee onboard. And yes, I bought this age account. My questions are:

1. How many post could I do per day to not get shadow banned/banned?
2. Is there any methods I could do to research for good trending hashtags in any specific niche? Or any software that I could get for that reason?
3. How do I know for sure if my IG account is banned?
3. Does getting an aged Twitter account means less chance to get banned just like IG? Again how do I get trending hashtags for any niche for that reason?

Thanks in advance for the Famous team. ? And yes, I'm a pretty much noob in IG and Twitter, been using Facebook all these years. Venturing now into these to hopefully for growing and monetizing purposes.

1. How many post could I do per day to not get shadow banned/banned? Truly as per my experience, that depends on niche you are working that account for. If its an e-commerce or marketplace related you can do around 10 per day which won't look like spam. If its a brand page or something not related to transaction then around 5 i would suggest but keep it relevant and engaging then even if you do around 10 on those pages it won't be spam anymore as real user engage with the content.

2. Is there any methods I could do to research for good trending hashtags in any specific niche? Or any software that I could get for that reason? You can try sproutsocial.com or keyhole.co (i use them for my research). They are helpful rest i depend on manual research more than tools.

3. How do I know for sure if my IG account is banned? You won't be able to login i guess if you are banned.

3. Does getting an aged Twitter account means less chance to get banned just like IG? Again how do I get trending hashtags for any niche for that reason? Question 2 replies to your second part of the question.

Addition to your queries: Avoid using aged account buy/sell and using them for brand usage etc. Facebook and social engines are now going more smart they don't ask OTP like past time they ask for real photo of profile holder and if you provide any fake pic they will never release your account and your page/group and everything will be trashed in a click.

To grow a brand legally, follow these simple rules -

1. Always stay updated with what's going on in your domain.
2. Keep close eye on your brand competitors and research hard drill on keywords, google searches, trending hashtags, social media promotions from your competitors.
3. Don't let your page post out of the engaging users eye, be in trend and follow the trend or if you are capable enough create your own trend and hashtags and make them popular.
4. Promote your brand with exclusive offers, time to time deals on special days, user engaging content and contests.
5. Don't promote products, promote your brand and let users search and hashtag your brands.

Above all this, creativity is the key to social media marketing. Always remember this law.

Hope this helped you all.
