"Woken up to pretty amazing results" -- Mint

(Feb 19, 2018 01:13 PM)Mint Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I was really quite skeptical about it at first, it seemed way too good to be true. Like most HF threads it really seemed clickbait with the amount in the Title. I followed pronouncers advice and took all the steps along with his personal mentoring we setup my page to look a lot better. I ran the bot overnight for a day and have woken up to pretty amazing results.

It has been a day since I have been using this and I am way happier with the results than I could have imaged. Its simply Incredible how well it functions, and the customisability is a great plus.

I will continue to test out his tool and post feedback.

Vouch for my guy Pronouncer, he's been making some awesome Instagram programs, which work amazingly well. The automation of each tool makes life and time so much easier. I can literally just leave the tool running over night and wake-up with a fair few followers without even opening my phone. Honestly, I recommend this program! :)
