Hi all,

I'm leaving to travel for ~1 year in a couple months. Of course I'll be taking music with me and I'm looking for a good deal on some in-ear headphones.

- Durable/robust/doesn't break easily
- Wired
- iPhone compatible
- Nice quality for listening to music
- Shipping to the Netherlands

Budget: ~40-60$ US

Any suggestions appreciated.

Have a good one

I used these earbuds everyday for like 1-2 years. Great balanced audio, very clear. I'd sometimes prefer these over my Audio Technica ATH-M50X's.

Did I mention they're less than $10?
