Description

Contacted him about a skeet invite. Got the runaround then scammed after I confronted him about his other scam report I had just noticed ?

Proof

Sorry for your loss. $130 is a lot of money.

Another person that is trying to abuse new people here, thinking they won't do anything if they get scammed. It's so stupid

Hope you get it sorted. HF is usually of a higher class of human. Don't let this discourage you.

I feel bad because I knew about this and let it happen. I was going to make a community warning stating the account has been inactive since 11-16-2016 and never used the marketplace(only posted in anime sections, shown no interest in purchasing/selling or even playing counter-strike and coding cheats) until yesterday.

Sorry you were scammed. Even more sorry that I was aware and did not make a warning.
