Thread: Imminent Monitor doesnt work!

bavenavav - February 21, 2018, 5:08 am

Hello HackForum,

I bought the Imminent Monitor.
I have everything normal and super activated.
But then I did the setup and did my STUB and tested it.
The stub is not working.

My question to you would be:

Is Imminent Monitor still active?
Is the support still active?
How long does the support take to answer?

I have been waiting for 5 days

Greetz

SO let me get this straight, Imminent has a user database of a few thousand probably and none complains about it not working but you. Yet you come here and assume that IMM doesn't work? If IMM broke HF would be spammed with threads. I'm 99,99% sure that you didn't set it up properly.

Pm Will help u

UpTheCrust - February 21, 2018, 6:29 am

Did you submit a ticket? Usually the reply to those within a couple of days

Purple Kief - February 21, 2018, 7:55 am

I highly doubt you have been waiting for 5 days.

x222 - February 21, 2018, 7:56 am

lol u cant make a support ticket and 2mins later make a hf thread saying u waited 5days.

ShockWave has decent support, maybe you have some firewall settings on?

bavenavav - February 21, 2018, 2:18 pm

What are your firewall settings?
which dns provider do you use?
Which port's are open to you?

Am I high? You started this thread didn't you? Now you're trying to help troubleshoot the issue?

topknocker - February 21, 2018, 11:37 pm

be patient or use another rat, otherwise idk what to do

resonates - February 22, 2018, 5:15 am

Happy to help if in need.

bavenavav - February 22, 2018, 7:49 am

You are high I try to clarify the problem by combining my knowledge with your knowledge.

Obviously we are all high and OP is right.

Obviously.

You opened the thread, and now your trying to trouble shoot issues?

Get the fuck outta here. If you can not figure out what in the flying monkey balls fuck you are doing, what the hell qualifies you to render assistance to others.

Lost ALL credibility with this post alone.

Dumb ass.....
