Thread: Quick question For Omni \(Old member coming back\)

XTC. - February 24, 2018, 2:39 am

Well, i was rep-fucked a long long time ago by Factor8(which i see is sadly gone now which i haven't explored why yet) for bumping my thread before 24 hours and/or deleting my post(the one in my signature i believe)

I was wondering is there any way to get a rep-fuck reversal(if its even possible that's mainly my question)? As i remember i had about 600+ positive reputation in before i was rep-fucked.

Just wondering as i'd love to re-open my shop and carrying on in the marketplace..Or would i have to somehow cut away at the negative reputation(which is mainly personal..) i accumulated over the 2 or so years i was active.

Rep Kill's are no longer a thing, and a reversal for something like that isn't possible.
I don't think he'll reset your reputation either.

I think you're just going to have to earn your rep back mate.

Ah, they're gone now? #Death

Well i hope its a change of heart on this since it's not around anymore(i do believe i had over 600+ positive reputation way back in 2015-16 from my shop and various other marketplace activities. :p)

Thanks for the answer though nonetheless.

Yeah he removed Rep Kills a year or so ago.

Factor8 will be admin again within the week and as ill said, repfucks aren't a thing anymore.
Welcome back.

champagnpapi - February 24, 2018, 2:47 am

People with 1-2k reps have been #repeffed if you think your case is the worst case scenario :p

Again thanks for the updates though. :p

I think you'll need to simply earn it back. I believe you can get someone to proxy sell stuff for you though.

Yes, we allow partnerships with non-members. If you're selling for an existing member you both cannot advertise the same service or product.

Ah yes, just looked up the news glad he's back he was pretty fair with me though that repfuck really like dented my motivation to keep on going so i took a long winded break for almost 2 years.

Also yeah, i saw some pretty big ones though the ones i earned were like in almost a few months spam as i was going crazy selling xbox live memberships(which were never carded by the way as my weak negative feedback says) and an instagram turbo'r

Yes, the main problem with that is as far as i can remember with reputation is that you can't ask for it so the chances of a user who you proxy sold it to getting a reputation is kind of low so asking for 2 people would be extremely rare.

Though if it really can't be reversed which would totalllly blow, i'll probably have to take that route. Thanks for pointing it at though. ;)

FamousHater - February 24, 2018, 2:54 am omni cant restore your account back to where it was. you will have to work hard to get back to 600 rep if that important to you.

Elitas - February 24, 2018, 3:19 am

Welcome back!

Factor8 is returning as an administrator very soon along with Xerotic and Phixel.

Also, reversing a repkill is not possible, the plugin deleted all reps and didn't keep track of which ones were removed, even if it did, it's been removed from the site now.

Vitani - February 24, 2018, 7:23 am

Welcome back to HF! Although repkills are a thing of the past, they won't be reversed.

Like others already sort of mentioned, it's not possible to reverse it. Once it's gone it's gone. There are no logs kept by the plugin used to carry out rep kills.

Description - February 24, 2018, 8:25 am

You aren't the only one so don't give up just earn it back it's not hard.

I was at like 680 or something

Evanescent - February 24, 2018, 8:25 am

There's nothing you can do I think except asking politely to the ones who left negative rep to reconsider.

Saltpeter - February 24, 2018, 8:31 am

Rep kills are no longer a thing and they were irreversible when they were. A handful of users have been accidentally rep killed.

Effexion - February 24, 2018, 8:35 am

Yes, your best bet is to just try and earn it back. 70+ is well doable.

Biggy - February 24, 2018, 10:31 am

Just participate in the community again and you'll earn it back in no time.

Omniscient will not remove the negative reputation or add back the positive.

SkullTraill - February 24, 2018, 10:52 am

Damn, crazy to see an oldfag back from before PMs existed on the site.

OP, there's this new feature called PMs where you can message a member directly without having to make a fucking thread for it.

It's a new feature bro I don't think you've heard of it.

You are literally asking for omni to reset your rep so that you can return to the forums only to make money?

You had your repfuck for a reason, either deal with it or leave.

KOTOR - February 24, 2018, 11:50 am

Rep fucks cannot be undone, but Reputation can be reset under certain circumstances, but I don't think you qualify for that.

Ahahaha! Golden.

Best post on this thread so far, my applause to you my good sir. ?

Factor8 is admin again now but repfucks cannot be revoked you need to get positive reputation.

I got repfucked years ago for something similar and I'm back up to 600 so it's not hard to rebuild.
