Can someone please explain this to me???

How is this possible? (Just bought the acc for smurfing)

Lmfao, have fun with that.

The MMR on brand new accounts calculated by OP.GG are most likely not very accurate. I've seen accounts getting placed in Gold 1 which had a Silver 2 MMR on op.gg.

But seeing your teammates ranks... I'm not sure what's going on.

Here's your explanation.

Owh yeah lol, didn't even see that.

There you go ;)

MMR somewhat stays with the account and has to be built up just like your elo. When the season ends you will keep your MMR which is why you usually land 1 lower than last season (I was plat so this season i start in gold even though I had 9 wins etc).

Ooooh I was bronze last season????
I bought the account yesterday rofl

Your last seasons mmr carries over to this season.
